BEATTIE CASE SET FOR NEXT MONDAY

SPEEDY TRIAL DECIDED UPON

Counsel for Commonwealth Won Over Defendant's Attorneys as to the Date for Trial—Great Interest in Case.

Chesterfield Court House, Va., Aug. 14.—Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., a young Virginian, of good birth and breeding, will be placed on trial for his life here next Monday in the little red brick court house built more than 160 years ago. A grand jury today returned against him a true bill, charging wife murder and if convicted in the first degree he may be sent to the electric chair. Counsel for the defense fought hard for postponement of the case, but Judge Walter A. Watson, of the Chesterfield circuit court, held that the interests of the commonwealth demanded a speedy trial and accordingly set the case for a week from today.

Already held guilty by a coroner's jury of having shot his bride in a motor car on the night of July 18th, the indictment of Beattie today was purely perfunctory. Only four witnesses were heard, but the jurors deliberated for two hours before they returned the broad indictment covering all degrees of homicide.

Neither Paul Beattie, cousin of the defendant, nor Beulah Binford, for the love of whom the State will charge that Beattie killed his wife, appeared before the jury, although both were brought here from Richmond.

The Binford girl, now only 17 years old, was prettily dressed in a blue tailor suit and a big picture hat. She appeared unruffled by the stares of the curious, although she shielded her face from photographers with her fan. No one except attaches of the sheriff's office was allowed to see her.

Not only was the defendant not present in court today, but no member of his immediate family put in an appearance. His aged father has said that he will stand by him to the end, but he avoided the notoriety of attending today's proceedings. Thomas Owen, an uncle of Beattie's wife, was a grand jury witness and was the only relative from that side of the case.

A striking feature of the day was the absence of women. There was not one, black of white, in the court room and only a handful from the vicinity of the courthouse on the lawn. The little court room holds normally only 50 persons, but perhaps 150 crowded into it today, while others swarmed about windows and doors. Perhaps to discourage future attendance of curiosity-seekers at the trial Judge Watson commanded all disinterested spectators to remain standing.

He wilted many in this way and several of the less tenacious returned disgruntled.

H. M. Smith, Jr., and Hill Carter, both well known criminal lawyers, appeared in Beattie's behalf. Both pleaded that the case be started not earlier than the first Monday in September, but L. O. Wendenburg and L. M. Gregory, for the prosecution, argued that the sentiment of the people demanded swift justice and won their point.

In charging the grand jurors, Judge Watson said that the Midlothian turnpike, where the crime was committed, "had become as well known as Wall street." He lamented the brutal features of the case without referring to Beattie by name and deplored the notoriety brought to the community. He said in conclusion.

"I charge that you diligently inquire at whose hands an innocent and defensely young lady came to her death and with reasonable certainty to identify the perpetrator that we may place him on his trial."

TOGO BEARS OLIVE B...

"Fighting Man of the East" Delivers Significant Address at Joint Banquet of Japanese and Peace Societies in New York.

New York, Aug. 14.—"The relationship between the United States and Japan must ever be one of peace and neighborly good will."

As Admiral Count Togo, speaking in his native tongue, uttered that sentiment today at the luncheon given jointly by the Japanese Society and the Peace Society, of New York, only the Japanese present understood and applauded vigorously, but when Commander Taniguchi, his aide, repeated the words in English, an outburst of applause arose spontaneously from the hundredes of guests present. It was the first expression here by the great fighting man of the East on the subject of International Relationship.

"My name, Heihachiro Togo, possesses a particular significance," he continued. "Heihachiro signifies 'Peaceful Son' and Togo means 'Eastern country'—the peaceful man of the East. I consider, therefore, that the name by which I was christened entitles me to address you on terms of intimacy.

"It gives me much pleasure to learn that this function has been given by the Japan Society in conjunction with the Peace Society. I cannot conceive of a happier combination since the relationship between Japan and the United States must ever be one of peace and neighborly good will. In this belief, I take advantage of the occasion to declare myself among the foremost advocates in favor of maintaining that relationship in order that our two countries which have so long lived in harmony and cordial friendship may continue to do so for ever. I raise my glass to wish prosperity to the two societies, success to the benevolent, welfare to you all and the sentiment, originally expressed by one of the great western sages, I would revise thus: 'Peace hath its victories more renowned than those of war.'"

Speeches also were made by Mayor Gaynor, Rear Admiral Leutze, U. S. N., and General Frederick D. Grant, U. S. A. Rear Admiral Leutze took occasion to thank Japan for the courteous hospitality accorded the American fleet on its recent visit to the Far East, while other speakers forecast the speedy signing of an international peace treaty with Japan as a direct result of the admiral's visit to the United States.

After luncheon the Admiral motored to Grant's tomb where he had ordered placed a large wreath.

PRINTERS IN CONVENTION.

Fifty-Seventh Session of the Union Opens in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Aug. 14.—The 57th session of the International Typographical Union was opened here today with an address by Mayor P. H. McCarthy and remarks from representatives of the daily press, the commercial printing branch of the industry and from representatives of the local typographical union. Response was made by President Lynch, of the International Typographical Union.

While the union was organized in 1852, this is the 57th convention that has been held by the International Typographical Union; it is not the 57th annual gathering. In 1894 the organization adopted the biennial idea and no convention was held in 1895 or in 1897; a return to annual conventions began with 1898, and they have been held yearly since that time.

The reports of officers submitted to the convention today shows that for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1910, the membership of the International Typographical Union earned $45,602,944, or an average of $953 per member. For the fiscal year ending May 31, 1911, the membership earned the total of $49,770,668, or an average per member of $973.

The average membership for the fiscal year ending with May, 1911, was 51,095, while the average membership for the prior fiscal year was 47,848.

These figures represent an increase in earnings of more than $4,000,000, and an increase in average membership of 3,247.

It was stated in the reports that at this time the average paying membership was more than 53,000.

The convention is quite largely attended, and will be in session throughout the week.

GOVERNOR'S MOTHER SINKING.

End Was Expected Last Night at Scotland Neck — Condition.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 14.—Governor Kitchin was summoned this evening back to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Maria Kitchin, at Scotland Neck. Two telephone messages today indicated that the aged lady is sinking and that the end is believed to be very near.

The Governor told anxious inquirers before leaving the city that there is now no hope for recovery. He feared, indeed, that the end would come before he could reach her bedside. He was with her two days last week but came back to Raleigh on account of the text book adoption and other very pressing business that awaited him here.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 14.—A dispatch from Rogersville, Tenn., says Thomas Kyle and a Miss Venable were instantly killed and eight other persons seriously injured during an electrical storm Saturday afternoon in Hawkins county, while attending a picnic of the Modern Woodmen at Strahl, near Rogersville. The picnickers took refuge in a church and the lightning struck this building with the result stated.

A RECORD FLIGHT BY HARRY ATWOOD

HIS DESCENT WAS THRILLING

Will Resume Flight This Morning to New York and Boston—Only Two Stops on Trip Yesterday—Previous Feats.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—By flying the 286 miles from St. Louis to Chicago with only two intermediate stops, and in an actual flying time of five hours and 43 minutes today, Harry N. Atwood, of Boston, believes he has set a pace which will result in his establishing a new record on his fight by aeroplane from St. Louis to New York and Boston.

As it is, Atwood appears to have broken the American record for a single day flight. The best previous American record was made by Atwood himself, when he flew 148 miles from Atlantic City to Baltimore on July 10, 1911. The best international cross country record is held by Andre Beaumont, who in the Paris-Rome contest covered 401 miles in a single day, but in this instance he made three landings, while Atwood landed only twice between start and finish.

Atwood in a Burgess Wright biplane left St. Louis at 8:05 A. M. He landed in Chicago at 6:19 P. M. His total time between St. Louis and Chicago, counting the delays occasioned by the two stops, was 10 hours and 14 minutes; but his actual time in the air, computed by deducting the delays, was five hours and 43 minutes. This, Atwood asserts, is three hours and 12 minutes less than the schedule time for express trains for the same distance.

Atwood's descent into Chicago was thrilling. Sailing in from the southwest, a lone speck in the clouds he made direct for the downtown district and for a time hovered unnoticed in the distance over the sky-scrapers. Thousands of people were crowded at the lake front intent upon the flights of the aeroplanes competing in the aviation contests. Atwood appeared on the scene as a stranger, until heralded and expected only by a few.

Suddenly the crowd noticed the oncoming stranger and a voice shouted: "That's Atwood from St. Louis."

Immediately the vast assembly was in an uproar. Two or three of the airmen sailed out to meet Atwood.

Coming steadily onward, Atwood steered over the aviation field and circled around it while some of the machines listed in the meet followed behind as an escort. Once around Atwood descended gracefully, touching the ground for the first time since his stop at Pontiac, Ill., 91 miles from Chicago.

Originally setting ten days as the maximum time for the completing the 1,460 miles to Boston, Atwood believes by the pace he set today he will be able to materially reduce that time. He had expected not to be able to reach Chicago before tomorrow, but favorable weather and the excellent working of his machine induced him to shorten his stops. His first stop, which was made at Springfield, 98 miles from St. Louis, after a two hour and 25 minutes flight, was to fulfill a promise. Instead of remaining there until 3 P. M., however, he got away two hours earlier. He was scheduled to stop at Bloomington, Ill., but the crowds assembled at his proposed landing place there were so dense he could not find clear space enough to land in safety so he swept low, nodding his head negatively at the people congested.

At Pontiac he descended to replenish his supply of gasoline and lubricating oil.

All that was suffered by the man who thus shot through the air at a speed greater than that of an express train was a slight buzz in his ears caused by the chugging of his engines. Landing on his feet he was as calm as though he were merely a spectator who had dropped in to watch the other aeroplanes.

Tomorrow morning Atwood will resume his journey eastward. He said he probably would take a course along the Lake Shore Railroad.

CONDITION OF POPE PIUS

Continued to Mend Throughout Day—Physicians Watchful.

Rome, Aug. 14.—While the condition of Pope Pius throughout today continued to mend his physicians still are watchful to a degree. They are forbidding any exertion, the fear of a relapse which they say his weakened condition would less able to withstand.

This morning found His Holiness more cheerful than yesterday and his temperature about normal. Tonight the temperature has risen a few degrees but the kidneys were working more satisfactory which contributed to the general relief of the patient.

Numerous dispatches from all parts of the world expressing hopes for the quick recovery of Pope Pius continues to arrive at the Vatican.

Washington, Aug. 14.—President Taft reached Washington at 10:05 this morning from Verely, Mass., where he spent the week-end. He went immediately to the White House.

A GENERAL LABOR REVOLT

Serious Condition Threatens Trade of the United Kingdom—Meeting of Railroad Managers in London—Strikes.

London, Aug. 14.—Tonight there appears little hope of averting a great railroad strike which probably will be accompanied by a general labor revolt that will have a tremendous effect on the trade of the United Kingdom.

At a meeting held in London today by the managers of all railroads having terminals here, it was resolved that the time had arrived to resist the men's encroachments. The managers contend that the men by striking will violate the agreement arrived at after the railway troubles of 1907, under which all disputes were to be referred to consiliation boards or an arbitrator. This agreement, they say, was to run until 1914.

Today's meeting was unanimous that the only way to terminate constant dislocation of business was to take a firm stand and refuse all concessions to the men. One manager in an interview expressed the fear that there will be grave troubles on all the railway systems before the present week is ended.

Sectional strikes of railway men were declared tonight at Manchester, Liverpool, Sheffield and other places.

London, Aug. 14.—The strike fever has become epidemic in Great Britain. From one end of the country to the other men either have struck or are threatening to do so. Even the women and girls in the smaller factories of the larger cities are demanding better conditions of labor.

The streets of London are resuming their normal appearance. The van men began work early in the day. At the docks only a portion of the men returned to work and a good deal of uneasiness prevailed, as many of the men refused to accept the settlement arranged by their leaders, and demanded unconditional surrender on the part of their employers.

At Southampton.

Southampton, Eng., Aug. 4.—The strike movement re-appeared here today when the coal trimmers refused to coal the American Line steamer Philadelphia, unless their wages were increased.

Lockout Becomes Effective.

Liverpool, Eng., Aug. 14. — The threatened lockout by the ship owners became effective today when 30,000 dockmen were refused employment until they decided to abide by the terms of their recent agreement.

The troops were compelled to fire on a mob of strikers here early this morning. Bayonet charges also were made upon the disorderly element.

CURE FOR CHOLERA.

Caviar Found to be Foe to the Deadly Baccilli.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Aug. 14.—The Ottoman Bacteriological Institute has found that caviar is an antidote for cholera. The discovery is the result of a protest against the Turkish government's exclusion of Russian caviar from Turkish territory for fear of cholera infection. The institute, after Turkey's ban, experimented with a pot of caviar which had been infected with cholera bacilli. In for days time it was found that all the cholera germs in the caviar had been destroyed.

PROMISING FUTURE FOR SOUTHPORT

Navy Department Reported to be Planning Coaling Station There.

DIRECTOR DAWE ON A VISIT

Planning Big Celebration for September 1st—Prominent Official of Southern Commercial Congress — Conference.

According to a dispatch sent out yesterday afternoon from Washington by the National News Association, rooms 522-523 Munsey Building, which furnishes the press, or telegraph service, to a number of afternoon papers in this State, including the Fayetteville Observer, from which the clipping is made, the United States Navy Department is planning to establish a new coaling station and harbor at Southport, N. C., and will ask the next session of Congress for the necessary appropriation for the establishment.

Inquiry through the Star's telegraphic sources of information at Washington last night as to the report was without result. Both the Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Navy were absent from the city and confirmation of the story through these agencies was fruitless. However, the dispatch through the National News Association shows that Southport is attracting quite a lot of attention elsewhere and it is safe to say that the department at Washington is fully alive to the splendid possibilities of the harbor there as a stragetic position from the standpoint of its war forces. The dispatch sent out yesterday afternoon is given for what it is worth and is as follows:

"Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—The Navy Department is planning to establish a new coaling station and harbor at Southport, N. C. The department will ask the next session of Congress for an appropriation for a coaling station and fortifications for the harbor. The officials are planning to make Southport another Gibraltar."

Coincident with the announcement as to the Navy's plans with reference to Southport, the Associated Press last night makes note of the fact that Managing Director C. Grosvenor Dawe of the Southern Commercial Congress, has been interested in the port and will arrive here today or tomorrow to assist with the arrangements for a big celebration at Southport on September 1st, upon the occasion of the arrival of the first regular railroad train at the deep water terminal. The dispatch is as follows:

Big Celebration

Washington, Aug. 14.—Managing Director C. Grosvenor Dawe, of the Southern Commercial Congress, left tonight for Southport, N. C., to assist in making plans for a celebration in that city on September 1st, in commemoration of the arrival of the first train at Southport.

After the forthcoming celebration in Southport, Mr. Dawe and Colonel D. C. Collier, of San Diego, Cal., will make an extended tour of the South in the interest of the "All South Conference," to be held in Memphis, Tenn., October 9th, under the auspices of the Southern Commercial Congress and other Southern business organizations.

NIGHT RIDERS AGAIN.

Van Buren County, Tenn., Scene of Terror from Outlawry.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 14.—News comes from Spencer, Van Buren county, situated in a remote part of the Cumberland mountains, of a series of outrages committed by moonshiners and developments of the past few weeks have proved that in spite of stern efforts to break up night riding, Ku Klux marauding in the mountains is still a thing to be dreaded.

Following a recent raid by revenue officers near the little town of Spencer, in which a man named Sullivan was killed, eight mountaineers organized themselves into a band of whitecaps, went on horseback to the home of Dan Whittenberg, who, it is alleged, had given lodging to the revenue officers. The outlaws entered his house at 2 o'clock this morning, took Whittenberg away from his wife and children, and, carrying him out in his own yard, almost whipped him to death.

Before arriving at the home of Whittenberg, the night riders visited his father, Pete Whittenberg, and threatened him. While they were beating him Whittenberg recognized the entire band, some of them by their voices, others by their horses. When he had sufficiently recovered from his terrible experience, Whittenberg swore out warrants against the eight suspects. When the case was called for trial a few days ago Whittenberg failed to appear and it was alleged that he had been threatened by the night riders, so the cases were dismissed, but the criminal court which meets in October will investigate the matter thoroughly.

Only a day or so before this, Slate Morris, of the same vicinity, who had given lodging to the officers, was shot from ambush while plowing in a field. Part of a load of buckshot entered his body, one striking him in the face.

INTERNATIONAL AVIATION MEET

Series of Accidents Thrilled Crowds at Chicago Yesterday—McCurdy's Machine Burned by Contact with Live Wire.

Chicago, Aug. 14—A series of accidents, any of which might easily have proven fatal, kept the audience at the third day of the International Aviation Meet, here, on tiptoe of excitement.

Two machines swooped into Lake Michigan, whence their drivers, Rene Simon and Lee Hammond, were rescued by motor boats, calm and collected, but mourning the loss of their machines.

Earl Ovington, driving a new biplane, grazed too close to one of the pylons marking the end of the course, one plane of his machine was wrecked and the plane started to fall. By sticking to the car, however, Ovington managed to force the engine into action and the biplane glided to the ground. Ovington was uninjured, but it was necessary to add a new plane to his machine.

J. A. D. McCurdy, flying near the ground, approached too near the club house of the Chicago Yacht Club. The planes of his car struck a number of high voltage electric wires running to the club house, and in a minute the canvas and oil-covered wood of the planes were on fire. McCurdy leaped out and reached the graund uninjured. The plane fell a few feet further, but too late for the fire to be extinguished and the aeroplane was consumed.

Simon's mishap in the water was more sensational. The French aviator's engine on his biplane was working badly. While flying over the water a mile from shore the engine stopped and the plane glided into the lake. It remained upright, the broad palnes holding all the the lower wheels out of the water.

Simon, carrying an inflated automobile tire for a life-preserver, was in no immediate danger, and when offered aid from the hydro aeroplane, which had been flying near, refused to leave his machine. With the aid of the hydro-aeroplane, Simon's plane was started and left the water successfully. A minute later it fell again, this time overturning. Guards in a motor boat rescued Simon from his perch upon the remains of aeroplane, cheerfuny smoking. He was taken to shore in the motor boat and the aeroplane was towed in.

Lee Hammond fell nearly 300 feet in his new biplane, made a high dive as the machine reached the water and swam for half a mile to meet the rescuing motor boat. The plane floated a few minutes and then sank in 100 feet of water. Divers and tugs with grappling hooks have been uable to recover it, and it is believed it cannot be brought to the surface.

The motor boat was more than a mile away when Hammond's engine stopped and he dived into the lake.

With the aid of his inflated automobile tire, Hammond easily kept afloat until he reached the boat.

Following were the results in the third day's events at the meet here:

Earl Ovington, 12-mile speed contest for monoplanes, time 13 minutes 31 seconds; Rene Simon, second, 13 minutes 53 1-5 seconds; Thomas Sopwith, third, 13 minutes 34 2-5 seconds.

Fastest lap in monoplane race: One mile and a third, made by Earl Ovington, 1 minute 27.44 seconds.

Starting event: John K. Frisble, first; left the earth in 88 feet 3 inches. Andrew Drew, in 91 feet; J. C. Turpin, third, 92 feet 6 inches.

Duration: James Ward, unofficial, 3 hours 20 minutes; said to have traveled 200 miles.

ENSIGN R. S. YOUNG REPORTS.

Will Determine Whether or Not He is Incapacitated for Duty.

(Special to the Observer.)

Morganton, N. C., Aug. 13.—Ensign Robert S. Young, Jr., of Concord, who mysteriously disappeared from his ship in the Brooklyn navy yard several weeks ago and whose whereabouts was unknown until he arrived in Morganton several days later to enter the Broadoaks sanitarium for mental trouble, is now in Norfolk, Va., where he was ordered by the Navy Department for an examination into his mental and physical condition. The order was received from the Navy Department shortly after Ensign Young arrived at Morganton, two weeks ago, but his condition was considered such that the physicians advised against the journey. The examination will be held at the naval hospital Monday and will determine whether Young shall be tried by court martial or return to Morganton for further treatment.

It is stated at the Broadoaks sanitarium that Ensign Young is in had condition mentally. He is able to be out, however, and has been seen on the streets frequently. His physical health is apparently all that could be desired, but, according to the sanitarium authorities, he has shown no improvement in his mental trouble. It is expected here that the examination will bear out the sanitarium physicians in their diagnosis of the case.

Young disappeared from his quarters on the torpedo boat destroyer Perkins while under arrest and was to have been tried by court martial in a few days.

TARIFF MEASURES STILL UPPERMOST

House Adopted Conference Report on Wool Revision Bill Yesterday.

HAD BUSY DAY IN CONGRESS

Wool Bill Pushed Over to Senate for Final Action—Underwood Predicts Final Adjournment for Next Week.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The tariff revisionists made considerable progress in Congress today. The House by a vote of 206 to 90, without a Democrat breaking the party alignment, adopted the conference report on the wool tariff revision bill and rushed it over to the Senate where it was hung up on the calendar for passage probably tomorrow. For this measure, which imposes a flat ad volarem with a duty of 29 per cent. on all raw wools with corresponding reduced rates on woolen manufactures, the other two tariff measures will be sidetracked to give wool right of way to the White House for the expected veto. On the veto depends the further programme of the House Democrats and the Senate Democrats and progressive Republicans including the formulation of plans for speedy adjournment.

Democratic Leader Underwood, of the House, in expressing the opinion today that final adjournment will not come before next week, said he does not expect Congress to stay after the pending bills have been disposed of unless the Senate determines to stay and act on the cotton bill.

That bill which makes an average cut of 21 per cent. in cotton duties was debated without action in the Senate today. It already has passed the House. Mr. Underwood said the free list bill might reach the House tomorrow for a vote although it is not expected before Wednesday.

The free list bill, which admits a variety of products duty free, including cotton bagging, shoes, agricultural implements, flour, lumber, etc., was put in such shape that it could be considered in the Senate tomorrow as a conference if consideration of the wool bill should be delayed. The conferees disagreed as to two vital amendments but these, according to plans of the leaders, will be speedily adjusted by the two houses without necessity of returning the bill to conference.

The wool bill was pushed through the House after a debate of forty minutes, Democratic Leader Underwood check-mating the Republicans, who refused to accept a debate limit of less than two hours.

During the Senate debate on the cotton bill, Mr. Cummins, of Iowa, speaking on the amendment which he proposes to offer, reducing the duties on iron and steel, declared that the war cry of the campaign would be "are we to have protection for the manufacture and free trade for the farmer?" He declared the Republican party would have to answer that question for the country.

"The great fight in the coming National convention," he predicted "will not be over a candidate, but over the platform as to what protection is."

Mr. Cummins made light of the tariff board, declaring that "he could prove by evidence far superior to the conclusions of any tariff board or any cutside investigating body that the reductions he proposed in the iron and steel schedules of the tariff law were reasonable."

Senator Dixon, of Montana, expressed the oponion that the Republicans would not be able to write another tariff law which the people would accept, granting protection to one part of the nation and placing the other part on a free trade basis.

CAROLINIANS TAKE TREATMENT

In Past Four Weeks 7,260 People Seek Hookworm Treatment.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Steady increase in the number of cases of hookworm treated at the four Rockfeller hookworm dispensaries in North Carolina, has been shown during the past four weeks, according to information received at the headquarters of the commission here. During the four weeks 7,260 cases were under observation.

The dispensaries are now operating in Sampson, Robeson, Columbus and Halifax counties, and within the next two weeks it is proposed to move them to Wayne, Cumberland, Onslow and Northampton counties, leaving the work in the former counties to the county health officers.

CARRABELLE SAFE

Friday Night's Storm Not Severe at Florida Port.

Pensacola, Fla., August 12.—The report that Carrabelle, Fla., had suffered serious damage from Friday's storm prover erroneous, as telegrams from that place last night stated that the storm was not severe.

The giver steamer Fritz and the mail boat Ruth, which left here a few hours before the storm and for whose safety some uneasiness has been felt, owing to their failure to arrive back in port, when they were due Saturday, have reported their safety.

The visitors hit the ball hard and often enough to keep them in the lead from the second inning to the finish. Harmon gave nine bases on balls, but was given the best kind of support.

REVOLVER FIGHT.

Newspaper Man and Cuban Fight in Havana City.

Havana, Cuba, Aug. 14.—There was a revolver fight tonight between Kiguel Gomez, a son of President Gomez, and Congressman Andre, editor of El Dia, a newspaper, which for several weeks has been making bitter personal attacks upon the President and his administration. Both men emptied their revolvers, but all the shots went wild and apparently none of the stators was injured.

Young Gomez alighted from a palace coach in front of the cafe Cosmopolita, adjoining the hotel Inglatorra, in which Senor Andre was having supper and immediately opened fire with an automatic pistol. Andre, rising from the table, drew his own revolver and returned the fire, whereupon Gomez fled, re-entered his coach and drove away. Neither man was arrested.

There is intense excitement over the affair. Young Gomez recently returned to Havana from London where he went as special attache to the Cuban legation at the coronation of King George.

BEACHY IS AGAIN WINNER.

Takes 20 Mile Biplane Race by Less Than Minute—Events.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—The record for total time spent in flying is one aviation mark that is bound to be broken during the international aviation meet here. The inspiration is the $2 paid each flyer for each minute his machine is in the air, and when the gun boomed to start the programme today the success of this plan for conducting a meet was proven.

The result was that during all the scheduled events, there were at least a dozen machines hanging over the field, several remaining up during the greater part of the afternoon.

The trip over the course, one mile and a third, around seven pylons, was made repeatedly in a minute, the average time in the 20-mile races being in less than 25 minutes.

Lincoln Beachy was the individual star today, taking the 20-mile biplane race by less than a minute from Earl Ovington. He made the distance in 23 minutes and 11-26 seconds. Ovington's time in the 20-mile race was in 23 minutes 56-07 seconds. Ward finished in 25 minutes 12-75 seconds.

Beachy chose a lower lever than either of his opponents, his biplane frequently seeming almost to graze the ground. After winning the race he began at once climbing contest, reaching 5,000 feet, from which he descended in spectacular spiral glides.

Oscar A. Brindley is believed to have won the day's record both for altitude and duration. He remained at an altitude of 6,500 feet for nearly three hours.

James V. Martin was conceded a victory in the alighting test, making a perfect descent and stopping within a foot of the red flag used as a marker.

John J. Frisbee, an entrant in the speed contest, met with an accident that may prevent any further participation in the meet. He circled the 250-foot tower of a lake front building, narrowly grazing the bronze Diana with which it is topped, and struck a gust of wind that nearly set his machine on end. He descended safely, but could not rise again.

Thomas Sopwith landed the $3,000 cash prize for the first flight carrying two passengers.

REASONS FOR RESIGNATION.

Senator Flint Tells Why He Left Monetary Convention.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 14.—Former United States Senator Frank P. Flint, explaining his resignation from the monetary commisison yesterday, said:

"This commission might, under proper conditions, accomplish a great deal of good, but a business man 3,000 miles from the seat of government, cannot give this vital matter the attention it should have.

"It is my conviction that the board should be made up entirely of members of Congress. As a matter of fact, I think it unlikely that the commission made up mainly of former members of Congress would be able to embody in a bill that would meet the approval of the present Congress the monetary reforms that are needed.

"For all these reasons and others, I decided some time ago to send in my resignation as soon as an opportunity presented itself."

Langford's manager says the Boston boxer is in first-class condition. He will weight about 175 pounds and O'Brien about 165.

CITY LEAGUE STANDING.

Errors in Sunday Morning's Account of Saturday's Games.

Owing to the linotype's propensities for asserting at the illogical moment its right to be credited with more knowledge of the subject in hand than the original writer, the baseball writer in reporting the City League games of Saturday was made to say entirely something aside from what was intended, and that right at the beginning before the write-up became tiresome to the reader. One would infer from the language the linotype gave us that the Boys' Brigade and Y. M. C. A. had not met before on the diamond this season, whereas, what was really written was "For the first 'game' in the City League yesterday afternoon the Y. M. C. A. and Boys' Brigade met." Also, there was a transposition in the standing of the clubs, but the following is the correct standing of the clubs:

	Won	Lost	Pct
Y. M. C. A.	2	1	.666
A. C. L.	2	1	.666
W. L. I.	1	1	.500
Boys' Brigade	0	2	.000

TY COBB AGAIN

Family Tree Claims Ball Player for Carolina.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 14.—W. N. Cooper has just returned from Murphy and brings confirmation of the story that Ty Cobb is a native North Carolinian and was born in Cherokee county. Mr. Cooper met the great uncle of Ty Cobb at Murphy. Mr. Cobb had seen the press reports to the effect that Ty was born in Cherokee county and he told Mr. Cooper that he need to tell him exactly the matter, to remove any doubts that might be in the minds of some of the people interested. The great uncle is H. Taylor Cobb.

Here is the family tree as Mr. Cobb related it to Mr. Cooper: Mr. Cooper took notes to keep the record straight. The great grandfather of Ty Cobb lived in Haywood county, near Bethel. He had two sons, John F., and H. Taylor. The great grandfather moved to Cherokee county in 1848 and settled near Ivy Log. John F., the grandfather of Ty Cobb, bought land and settled on Moccasin Creek, in the same county. The father of Ty was Herschel Cobb and he married and lived in the same community, going to school at Bellview, in Cherokee county, where Ty Cobb afterward received his primary education. Both father and son after leaving Bellview, received further education at Delonega, Ga. It was here that Ty Cobb met the young lady whom he afterward married, who was from Banks county, Ga. About 10 or 12 years ago Ty Cobb's father also moved to Banks county and was one time elected to the Georgia State Senate. He died about eight years ago.

Dr. Heigway, of Murphy, also told Mr. Cooper that he, Ty Cobb, has visited at his home and he too is acquainted with the above information.

'FRISCO GETS A. B. & A.?

Rumored That Western Line May Absorb New Southern System.

Waycross, Ga., Aug. 13.—Basing the report on an announcement regarding Winter traffic from the West, a rumor is floating around in railroad circles to the effect that the 'Frisco system has made the first step toward taking charge of the Atlantic, Birmingham & Atlantic, and that the official announcement of a deal would not come as a surprise any day now.

Additional support is claimed for the new story by purchases of rail for improvements around Birmingham by the 'Frisco system and by extensive roadway improvements along the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic, from Birmingham to Waycross.

Various officials of the 'Frisco system will be through here in September, presumably on business regarding Florida points.

It is said that their visit has direct connection with the tentative deal whereby the 'Frisco will get possession of the Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic.

GOOD NEWS

Many Wilmington Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Wilmington are glad to learn that prompt relief, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Mrs. L. F. Rivenbark, Wilmington, N. C., says: "Dull, nagging backaches and severe pains in my kidneys caused me considerable suffering. I could not rest well and in the morning when arising felt tired and languid and had no strength or ambition. The kidney secretions were unnatural and deposited sediment, from which symptoms I decided that my kidneys were out of order. When I read of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store and they gave me relief almost immediately. Since then backache has never bothered me and my kidneys have been normal."

BURNED NEGRO AT STAKE.

Pennsylvania Mob Applies the Torch, Had Killed Policeman.

Coatsville, Pa., Aug. 13.—Zaccariah Walker, a negro desperado, was carried on a cot from the hospital here tonight and burned to a crisp by a frenzied mob of men and boys. The negro, who last night shot and killed Edgar Rice, a special policeman of the Worth Iron Mills, was first dragged to the scene of the shooting, begging piteously for mercy.

He had been arrested by a posse late this afternoon after a search which stirred the country. The posse finally found him hiding in a cherry tree. The negro with the last bullet in his revolver shot himself in the mouth, falling from the tree. He was removed to the hospital and placed under guard.

A few minutes after 9 o'clock a crowd numbering almost 1,000 persons, appeared at the hospital. The leaders were denied admission but they quickly smashed the window frames and crawled through the corridor. When Walker was first taken to the hospital he was strapped down in order to prevent his escape. The mob, seeing this, gathered up the bed and placing it on the shoulders of four men, started for the country. When half a mile from the hospital they entered a field and quickly gathered up a pile of dry grass and weeds, placed the bed containing their victim on it.

A match was applied and the flames shot up quickly, entirely enshrouding the screaming victim. That not a vestige of the murderer be left, the mob tore down the fence along the road and piled the rails on the burning negro. After waiting for half an hour the mob dispersed. A curious feature of the burning was the fact that there were almost as many women in the crowd as men.

During the march from the hospital to the scene of the burning of the negro, not a policeman was encountered by the mob. Even the man on duty in the hospital made no effort to stop the leaders who gained admittance to the institution.

The only masks worn by the members of the mob were handkerchiefs drawn over their faces.

Coatesville is a town of about 10,000 population and is located on the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, about 30 miles west of Philadelphia.

Coatesville, Pa., Aug. 14.—No arrests have yet been made in connection with the lynching of Zack Walker, who last night was dragged on a bed from a hospital to be burned alive on the outskirts of the town. The authorities of Chester county, it is said, tonight are in possession of a list of about 30 names of men who are alleged to have been the ring leaders of the mob. Warrants, if any are issued, will not be sworn out until the investigation has been completed. Borough county and State officials are uniting in an effort to bring the leaders of the mob to justice, but it is alleged that some of the leading citizens of the town are involved and arrests will not be hastily made.

Resolutions deploring the outrage were adopted at a special meeting of the borough council tonight by the Business Men's Association.

Although the burgess of Coatesville reported that he would be able to handle the situation without assistance, Sheriff Goldner asked that the governor send a squad of State troops here. Acting upon this request, Captain John C. Groome ordered Captain Wilhelm and nineteen troopers to proceed to Coatesville at once. This squad left Pottsville at 7 P. M. and reached here before midnight. Sheriff Golder and District Attorney Robert S. Gawthorp, of West Chester, today took Howe, the policeman who was on guard at Walker's bedside when the mob arrived, and a colored hospital attendant, to West Chester, 12 miles across country, and put them through a severe cross-examination in an effort to learn the identity of the men who carried the mob's victim from the hospital.

In his statement, Howe said that a signal was given in front of the hospital by a pistol being fired. Then a brick was thrown through a window and the rush occurred.

"I was overpowered at once and could do nothing against the odds," he said.

Saturday morning a committee consisting of J. H. Tucker, Thos. Rollins and Judge Jones appeared in the Circuit Court of the United States, which is in session here, Judge Boyd presiding, and read the resolutions in honor of the memory of Judge Adams, which were ordered spread on the minutes of this court also.

AN EDUCATED PIG.

Asheville Merchant Vouches for Story of Remarkable Animal.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 14.—A story of a wonderful semi-educated pig is brought from upper Reems creek by a prominent business man of the city and is vouched for by him. The pig belongs to "Fabe" Morris, a merchant and farmer of that section, who is said to have done much good in his community by offering prizes to his neighbors for the best pure bred pigs, thus relegating the "razorback" to the past.

But the pig in question is a pure bred Berkshire, what is known as the Short-eared Berk. Mr. Morris is breeding him to exhibit for the Western North Carolina fair. The Asheville man was passing the home of Mr. Morris. Mr. Morris stopped him and told him he wished to show him a pig. He states that Mr. Morris looked up toward the house and said in a conversational tone, "Come here pig," and a small pig came trotting down to the road and looked up at his mater as if asking him what he wished. It was a fine looking pig, clean and fat. Mr. Morris then made the pig go through a few stunts, such as sitting up, lying down, and walking about as his master directed, the pig all the while keeping an eye on Mr. Morris, seeming to be anxious to do as he directed.

Then he went into the store, the pig following. Mr. Morris made a motion and the pig stepped up on the scales. The gentleman afterward owned that Mr. Morris may have sprinkled some salt on the scales; but at any rate, the pig remained quietly on the scales until the weighing process was complete, he descended in a dignified manner and looked up as though to question the result. It was found that he had gained his usual pound a day, weighing 76 pounds at the age of two months and ten days.

They were still discussing the fine points of the pig when a bell rang at the house by which the pig knew that supper was ready, and refusing to listen to any more praise or instructions, he hurried to the house.

COTTON CROP CONDITIONS.

Memphis Commercial-Appeal Says There Has Been Deterioration.

Memphis, Tennessee, Aug. 14.—The Commercial-Appeal says: Deterioration of a more or less serious nature in the cotton crop is reported from Texas and parts of Mississippi and Alabama. Elsewhere the crop has done well with local exceptions.

The decline in Texas, which has occurred in central, northern and western counties, is the result of excessive heat and two weeks without rain following a wet period during which the plant grew rapidly. Shedding and worms form the basis of the complaints. The heat has reduced the activities of worms but increased the shedding which has in places been severe. There are some reports from this State which say the crop is still holding up and that the alarm is overstated.

Poplarville, Miss., Aug. 14.—As the result of a pistol duel engaged in between R. B. Boyette, local railroad agent, and J. W. Bradsahw, a merchant, here yesterday, both men are in a hospital suffering from serious wounds. The trouble between the two men is said to have grown out of a notice posted on Bradshaw's store warning Boyette to leave town.

SUNDAY MURDER IN RALEIGH

J. B. Bissett Shot to Death and Married Woman Charged With the Crime—News of a Day at Raleigh.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 13.—Mrs. William R. Yerby is under arrest and held as a material witness to the shooting of J. B. Bissett, which occurred a mile and a half east of here last night.,

Under police examination today Mrs. Yerby stated that she was out driving last night in a hack with Bissett and L. J. Morris, a pressman, formerly of Richmond, Va., who soon left them.

Upon reaching the spot where the tragedy occurred, Mrs. Yerby says some men rushed upon them and shot Bissett, while the man was on his knees pleading for mercy. The bullet entered above the left collar bone and ranged downward toward the heart, severing an artery. He bled to death.

Mrs. Yerby says that after the shooting she got in the hack and drove back home. She states she did not recognize any of Bissett's assailants. She asserts that she told Bissett and Morris before they started on the drive that her husband was home drunk.

The husband, a clothing salesman, was arrested, but denies any knowledge of the shooting.

The authorities have released William R. Yerby, husband of the "woman in the case" of the murder of J. B. Bissett here Sunday morning, the release being on the ground that there is not the least indication that he shot Bissett or had anything to do with the affair. He seems to have really been at home drunk as his wife told Bissett and L. J. Morris he was when they were driving in the hack.

The police are developing clues against L. J. Morris and believe that he really did the shooting although they have not been able to trace him nearer to the scene of the killing than Swain street, two miles away, where he left Bissett and Mrs. Yerby in the hack. It is claimed, though, that Morris could have taken a near cut to the place and been in hiding there by the time the hack drove around the highway to the place. The statement of Mrs. Yerby is that when he left them Bissett told Morris that if he found a friend to come right on out to the place, which had in the past been a gambling rendezvous for them. And that Morris replied "I will be there." The police are puzzled over the fact that the bullet that was taken from Bissett's wound was a 32 and the revolver that Morris turned over to the police, claiming to have picked it up at the scene of the killing after the discovery of the murder, is a 38. However, they say that Morris is amply shrewd to have purposely gotten a revolver of a different calibre to muddle the evidence. The body of Bissett was carried to Bailey's in Nash county, today for interment. The charge is being made by his people that Saturday evening he had collected $700 and that this was taken from him when he was killed, thereby raising the question of robbery as the motive. However, $38 was found in his pockets when found and the police do not credit either the story of $700 collection or the theory of robbery. Coroner Seaparks and his jury have taken a recess for a couple of days to await developments with the expectation of coupling up Morris with the killing sufficiently to prevent habeas corpus proceedings in his interest after they bind him over to the Superior Court. The indications are that Haywood Penny, the negro hackman, will be released soon as there is no evidence against him. He will be be an important witness in corroobating the evidence of Mrs. Yerby.

Two charters were issued today. The Farmers' Union Supply Co., of North Wilkesboro, begins business with $10,000 capital by J. G. Hackett, B. S. Call and others for a general mercantile and farmers' supply business. The Worley Furniture Co., of Selma, is chartered with $25,000 capital by P. C. Worley and others for a furniture store. There is an amendment for the charter of the Albemarle Furniture & Supply Co., of Albemarle, to add $25,000 to the capital stock, A. P. Harris is the president.

The North Carolina laws for the protection of forests as amended by the last Legislature provide both criminal and civil liability for the starting of fires that through carelessness develop into forest fires, and Commissioner of Insurance Young is sending to the sheriffs and clerks of the courts in all the counties copies of the law and big posters to be put up throughout the counties to get before the people just what is expected of them to protect the forests and prevent fires and what the punishment is for those guilty of either careless or malicious starting of such fires. The forest fire losses in the United States the past year amounted to $25,000,000 and North Carolina's share of this was far more, the commissioner says, than there is the least excuse for its having been.

The National convention of the State Commissioners of Insurance will be in session August 22nd to 26th, in Milwaukee and Hon. Jas. R. Young, North Carolina's commissioner, is to attend, being chairman of a number of the most important committees of the convention.

Hendry, president of the Night and Day Bank, of Memphis, formerly connected with the banking institution of Oklahoma City, is being searched for tonight on a warrant charging that he is a fugitive from Oklahoma. SIDELIGHTS AT WASHINGTON

North Carolina Should Advertise More—Story Told by Uncle Joe Cannon—Congressional Party That Went Hungry.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, Aug. 14.—North Carolina watermelons were given a good boost here last week when Uncle Joe Cannon and Champ Clark, two of the bright and shining lights of Washington, ate one from the farm of Senathr Cobb, of Robeson county. The names of those in the distinguished party have been given in these columns. The eating of the Tar Heel melon was a notable event at the Capitol.

I have wondered for years why North Carolinians did not advertise more. My sojourn in the West taught me a fine lesson about printer's ink. The Westerners are great publicity people. Seattle, Spokane, Portland and San Francisco, as well as thousands of smaller towns, have fattened and increased on publicity. I saw in a North Carolina newspaper a syndicate picture of a table of prize apples at the Spokane show of last year. There were just as fine apples at Waynesville, but no State paper ever carried their picture. Getting things in the paper is part of the game of the West.

The North Carolina watermelon is not surpassed for size and quality anywhere in the world. Why not make the fact known? Speaker Clark told me that he had never eaten a better melon or seen a finer one than the one sent up by Mr. Cobb. Every year for the last decade some Western Senator has had sent to the press galleries at the capitol fine apples. As a result every one of the 250 correspondents that write about apples refer to the ones they know about. The beautiful apple of Oregon is not half so toothsome as the one that grows in the mountains of western North Carolina.

Senator Cobb is on the right track. Through Representative Godwin he has given North Carolina some wholesome publicity.

Joe Brown, of Chadbourn, is a fine advertiser. Every year he sends two or more crates of strawberries here. The manager of one of the leading hotels of Washington said that the berries sent by Mr. Brown were the best he had seen during the season.

What is said of watermelons and strawberries can be said of many other things. If the North Carolina producer will wake up and tell the world about his stuff he will be rich by and by.

The watermelon incident of last week reminded me of a story that someone told Uncle Joe Cannon two years ago when he visited his birthplace in Guilford county. I have forgotten who told the yarn and I have no idea how old it is, but it will do to repeat. A party of gentlemen gave a watermelon feast. A majority of the hosts wanted to serve champagne but owing to the fact that several preachers had been invited to participate they were afraid to expose the liquor. But in order to adjust matters champagne was poured into the melons that the sinners were to have. By mistage the negro serving the melons gave a spiked piece to the minister. There was no warning given. Any questions or changes were overruled and aroused suspicion [illegible] had finished the [illegible] ran his knife a[illegible] and said: "I ha[illegible] but that is the [illegible] Wonder if I co[illegible] seed to plant [illegible]

Uncle Joe [illegible] he had heard it in [illegible] watermelon dinner [illegible]

Dr. Faison, [illegible] esting member [illegible] tingent in Wa[illegible] just returned from a Co[illegible] junket down the Ohio river.

The rivers and harbors committees of the House and Senate went from Pittsburg to Cairo to look the water and land over. The water being low and the land high at places the ship on which the party traveled would hang up on the sand and detain the statesmen for hours. The people along the way could not entertain as they would have done had the party been on time.

At Parkersburg, W. Va., a great reception had been planned for the Congressional junketers. Breakfast was cooked and ready by 8 o'clock, the hour fixed for the arrival of the prespective guests, but the ship stuck and the captain wired that he would not arrive until midday. The liquors were shoved back in the lockers and the breakfast cooled for lunch. Twelve, one and two passed and no boat was in sight. Another telegram brought the news that the boat was still on the sand and would not reach Parkersburg until night. The breakfast, which had been cooled for lunch, was warmed over for dinner. Seven, eight, nine and ten o'clock passed but no boat came. The reception committee at Parkersburg threw down the lines, uncorked the wine, uncovered the food and told the natives to help themselves. Everybody, saint and sinner, rich and poor, feasted and drank.

About midnight, when the boat appeared, three persons were at the landing. "Who (hic) come there (hic)?" shouted one of the three.

"The rivers and harbors committees of Congress," responded a hungry Congressman.

"(Hic) (his) You tell the rivers and harbors committee to go to h—l," yelled the Parkersburg man.

INTEREST IN GLIDDEN TOUR.

Selection of Southern Roads for Event is the Feature.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 14.—Southern automobilists will take more interest this year than ever before in the Glidden tour, which will be run to Jacksonville, Fla., via Atlanta. Three prominent Atlanta business men entered cars today and six are ready to make application. The selection of Southern roads for this season's tour is declared to have been due largely to the vast amount of work that has been done on public highways below the Potomac in recent years. The use of convict labor has made this possible.

Jacksonville as well as Atlanta, is preparing a welcome for the tourists and are repairing the roads in that vicinity.

REPUBLICAN STATE POLITICS

Complications in Internal Revenue Collector's Office — Civil Service Rules and How They Apply —The Chairmanship.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 14.—North Carolina Republican politics is coming in for considerable discussion just now hereabouts, the increased interest being partially due to the fact that theer are a couple or so very desirable positions vacant in the office of the collector of internal revenue here and Duncan and anti-Duncan forces are eagerly watching the political plays that involve these places and also the manipulation of Republican State politics in general.

The most important vacancy in the collector's office is that of cashier, made vacant by the death of William B. Duncan, who was the father of National Committeemen E. C. Duncan. Collector Wheeler Martin is the closest sort of a personal and political friend of National Committeeman Duncan and, was made collector at the instance of Mr. Duncan. Therefore just as far as the civil service rules will permit with the most strained construction it is naturally surmised that supporters of the Duncan interests will be given these places in the revenue department. However, it is pointed out that one or more of those on the eligible list to whom under the civil service rules these places would go, are in very bad standing with National Committeeman Duncan, being regarded as Morehead and State organization. One of these especially in line is Frederick N. Gattis, who had a clerkship in the department and is charged to have been unfairly cut off some months ago when the revenue force was being reduced by order of the department at Washington. The charge is being made now that the vacancies in the revenue office here now are being left open purposely to avoid having to give a place to Gattis, and some others who are objectionable to National Committeeman Duncan.

Swinging off on politics of a wilder scope, it is being talked here that the National Committeeman is laying plans to have Collector Wheeler Martin stand for the State chairmanship against Chairman Motley Morehead, and then, in this way gaining the defeat of Morehead, get a friendly western man in as active State chairman. It is charged that he proposes to use Collector Martin purely as a "dummy" in his scheme to defeat his arch enemy, Chairman Morehead. On the other hand it is asserted that the most determined sort of a movement is under way to see to it that the delegation to the next National Republican convention is anti-Duncan so that Chairman Morehead or some leader acceptable to his element of the party will be made National committeeman. It is being charged against National Committeeman Duncan that he has used the political power of this position to coerce postmasters and other office holders all over the State in "shelling out" good big slices of their salaries for purposes that were solely for the benefit of some personal friend and had no bearing on the maintenance of the Republican organization and its work in this State. The part that the National committeeman has played and the way he has played in the State is also bobbing up as a club with which the political enemies of the National committeeman would seek to dethrone him. It is declared hereabouts that the fight is now to have no let up and the "political scalp" of the present National committeeman is the prize toward which Chairman Motley Morehead and his associates in the State organization are concentrating their political effort in a most determined manner.

Fighting Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpusoles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt-rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Cal., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c. at R. R. Bellamy.

S.S.S. REMOVES ALL HUMORS FROM THE BLOOD

The cause of all skin diseases can be traced to some humor in the blood, and therefore the cure of any skin trouble can come only through a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., relieve some of the itching and discomfort, help to reduce inflammation, or aid in keeping the cuticle clean, but such treatment does not reach the blood, and of course can have no real curative effect. S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every kind because it purifies the blood. It is an internal remedy for an internal trouble, and works on the only reasonable and certain method of cure. S. S. S. removes all acids and humors from the circulation and leaves the blood stream rich, healthy and nourishing in order that it may supply the cuticle with the necessary properties to restore it to its smooth, normal condition. Then a cure results because the old exciting cause has been disposed of. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice sent free to all who write. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

It is the wish of all to obtain success in life. The way to reach this goal is easily defined—spend less than you make. To make a saving whenever you can means to pay cash for what you get, you are not then paying a part of the other man's bad debts.

The Big Store of Geo. O. Gaylord, on Front street, is not ashamed or afraid to do a credit businesss, but we find that by selling our goods for the cash we can discount our bills, and save quite a profit which we can give our customers the benefit of. It is supposed to be the dull season of the year now and in our Big Store we have it piled full of merchandise. The stock is complete and the clerks are kept busy. In the dress goods department on the first floor we are badly needing room, as the cotton will soon be opening and harvest time has come and we do not wish to pack those goods away for next season. We are selling our 12 1-2c organdie batiste, sheer lawns, all beautiful goods, for 7 1-2c per yard. Beautiful quality 40-inch white lawn in 10 to 20-yard lengths, which is cheap at 12 1-2c, a fresh supply from the factory for 9c per yard. An old ladies' American print calico in black and white, the best goods made, worth 8c per yard, and we will sell 10 yards to each customer for 5c a yard.

A big assortment of ladies' dresses to sell at just about half price, 50 cents on the dollar. A lot of ladies' slippers to close out, $1.50 values, and good shoes for the price, at 97 cents a pair. A big lot of men's linen sole, heel and toe with fine gauze lisle tops, a good 25c sock, for 15c. A fine line of men's pants, all wool, sporty, $5.00 goods for $2.98 a pair.

FINE CLOTHES FOR MEN

The kind that are made by tailors that make the best. The cloth, the lining, the stiffening, the silk thread that they are sewed with, the color and the style are warranted by the Adler Rochester Clothing Co., the finest clothes made in the world.

We have a few suits of the Adler clothes left from our Spring purchases. The price of these suits are from $18.00 to $25.00 a suit and we will sell them now from $15.00 to $21.00 per suit. If you buy one Adler suit you will buy nothing else in the future but Adler clothing.

The Big Store on Front street is anxious to add you to their list of customers and will make it to your advantage to come in and see them. Remember the place.

People who look upon South American countries as lagging behind, will be surprised that during 1910, there opened in Chile 872 miles of improved highways, making 10,969 miles of first-class wagon and cart roads in that country. During 1910 the Chilean government sold 144,853 acres of government land to actual settlers, and it appears that no newcomers wanted lands where there were no good roads. There is a pointer for counties which have no good roads.

A great wave of reform is sweeping over the country," observes a contemporary. Of course, that wave of reform is all right if it doesn't carry us into the breakers, where waves always expend their force. The wave of reform sweeping over the country has its funny side. Its funny side is the top side, and about the funniest part of it is to see all the old politicians riding on its crest. The country got in bad shape while they were running things and the curious part of it is that they now ask to have the reform movement committed to their hands. The question of the hour is "Can a man be a reformer when he never worked at it much when he had a chance?"

NATION'S PLAYGROUND HERE.

What is the matter with making Wilmington not only the South's but the Nation's playground? The climate, Winter and Summer, is ideal, and the natural advantages at our seaside and the nearness of this hospitable region to the principal cities of this country, are fast establishing the fame of Wilmington as a resort centre. We should take advantage of it and develop on big lines for the attraction of both Summer visitors and Winter tourists.

During this season more than a score of States have been represented by visitors at Wrightsville Beach. Without mentioning the closer States, let us note that within the past few days visitors came here from the far western State of Oklahoma. Yesterday we saw a party of ladies and gentlemen from Pittsburg and Washington board the trolley cars for the beach, so we see that Wrightsville Beach is attracting Summer visitors from the North as well as from the South. Mr. Robert L. Spencer, of Pittsburg, president of the Duquesne Warehouse Company, of that city, came down several days ago with a party and they are all perfectly delighted with our refreshing breezes, fine surf bathing, enjoyable yachting, and unrivaled fishing—all within 30 minutes trolley ride from Wilmington. They came here purposely to spend a while at Wrightsville Beach and the party speaks in loud praise of it in comparison with some of the most popular Northern and Southern resorts.

Of course, Wrightsville Beach is a success as a Summer resort and doubtless the end of the season will show that it has been visited by 50,000 people from abroad. We can take this success as an asset for building greater as the Nation's most ideal Summer resort, but do not let us forget also that we are neglecting our opportunity to make the city even more famous as a Winter resort. A few days ago we quoted from a friend who wrote from Florence, heartily endorsing the Star's proposition to prepare for the entertainment of Winter tourists, and we again quote from his letter. Speaking of some of the advantages that would accrue from making Wilmington a resort for Winter tourists, he says:

"Is it not to be presumed that if Wilmington were made a Winter resort, train service would be improved—that through trains would be run between New York and Jacksonville, via Wilmington? Is there any other place in the United States where a longer season could be assured for a thoroughly first-class hotel, than Wilmington? Only a first-class hotel, one charging the highest rate and giving the money's worth, will serve the purpose. Wealth is increasing throughout the country and people of wealth are looking for first-class places for recreation and pleasure. The building of such a hotel in Wilmington would help every hotel at present in existence. Every hotel man in Florida thought when Mr. Flagler and Mr. Plant began to build their great hostelries in Florida in 1886 they were "out of biz' but the result was their real success."

The Star's esteemed correspondent is a gentleman who is a frequent visitor throughout the Winter tourist circuit and he is enthusiastic over adding Wilmington to it. He is satisfied it can go well in the pictures with Jacksonville and Palm Beach if the steps were taken to develop along broad lines.

PROTECTION FOR INDUSTRY.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association will be held in Wilmington tomorrow at 2:30 P. M. If something is not done to reorganize the association this will be its last meeting, since it is quite likely some step will be taken to dissolve the organization for lack of means and interest to carry on the association's important work.

The most calamatous thing that could happen to our strawberry and trucking industry would be to let this association go to pieces, and The Star will warrant that it will not long be out of commission till there will arise a greater demand for another such organization to protect the interests of the growers and to foster the industry according to the plans and methods followed by the association.

The stockholders of the association reside in the counties of New Hanover, Pender, Duplin, Wayne, Sampson, Columbus and Cumberland. Since there will be reduced railroad rates for this meeting, with tickets good from today until next Thursday, there should be a full attendance from all the counties. This is too important a matter to be allowed to go by default, for it will be taken as evidence of the passing of the greatest strawberry and vegetable industry in this country.

Since the association was organized fifteen years ago, shipments of strawberries through the association have brought the value of $17,469,184, not to mention the value of independent shipments and local business. About one-third of this has been net profit, aside from the fact that this distribution of millions throughout the country has made our people prosperous, has built towns, brought about the establishment of banks, has benefitted business, and no doubt has been of some benefit to every man, woman and child in eastern North Carolina. Bankers and business men generally should interest themselves in the association and aid it to continue its work of fostering an industry of such far-reaching benefits as that of growing a million dollars worth of strawberries each season. We should remember that the interests of the growers can be easily affected, and we should not lose sight of the fact that in addition to the profits left in the hands of growers, at least $250,000 annually is paid out for labor, that much more for fertilizers and various amounts for expenses of various kinds.

Let us stop to think that this is the greatest strawberry region of the world, and that our customers are to be found in nearly every State east of the Mississippi river and north of the James. Shipments are made to hundreds of American cities, and among the Canadian cities which are regularly served by carload lots out of this territory are the great cities of Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, etc. Don't let us take an backward step in this matter, but let our growers maintain and strengthen their organization and go right on holding their position in the great markets served by this region.

WE MUST MAKE OUR HAY

Talking about making cotton, tobacco, peanuts, and your other cash crops, there is no reason why we should not add corn and hay to our general money products. We have started out well as a corn growing country and we must not stop until North Carolina produces all its own corn and some to spare for other consumers.

So far as hay is concerned, we ought to be ashamed to buy a bale raised in another State, yet a few days ago the Star's Oxford correspondent mentioned that Granville county is this season getting hay from Mexico, paying as high as $150 a carload for freight charges alone. The Granville people appear to be waking up to the absurdity of such a thing, for our Oxford correspondent mentioned later that a whole carload of clover seed was received there by a mercantile firm during the past week. This shows that the Granville farmers are going to plant clover, but they should not forget the other forage crops that go along with it. They will find that diversified hay raising will pay as well as diversified crops generally. When one kind of hay crop fails some other might flourish, and so it would be a good idea for the farmers to write the State and National Agricultural Departments and acquire all the knowledge they can about the forage plants which will flourish in this region.

We have just got to raise our own hay and we may as well get at it. We can produce all we want around Wilmington and if one feels like disputing it he should go out to Mr. Geo. W. Trask's place and see a fine crop of peas and crab grass following his regular truck crops. Let our farmers get down to business and become entirely independent as producers of all the great variety of crops that can be abundantly and profitably raised in North Carolina.

Miss Eloise McGill, of Fayetteville, N. C., is collecting material for the purpose of writing a history of the early settlers of Cape Fear section of North Carolina. These settlers were emigrants from Scotland who came over after the battle of Culloden in 1745. Many of them, according to Miss McGill, afterwards removed to other States and she believes that there are many descendants of these "North Carolina Scotchmen" now living in Florida, and it is her desire to get into communication with them at once. The Times-Union has been asked to give publicity to this matter and takes pleasure in inviting such as may care to do so to write to Miss McGill on the subject.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

"The hay crop in Suwannee county this season is worth more in dollars and cents than ever before," says the Live Oak Democrat. "The price of good timothy hay is sky-high and still going, and for this reason every pound of hay saved by our farmers is money made." Very likely many people would be surprised if told that hay could be realsed in Florida, but there are very few things that cannot be brought to perfection in this favored clime. The Democrat goes on to say that "Florida hay when properly saved and cured is better feed and worth just as much money as the choicest hay from the North," and adds that Suwannee county should raise all that is needed and some additional to sell. —Jacksonville Times-Union.

CURRENT COMMENT.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL

Editor Gantt Writes of Road—Personal and General.

Whiteville, N. C., Aug. 14.—A letter from Editor Gantt states that the engineering party of four corps of workers of the Transcontinental Railway passed Chimney Rock Saturday en route to Rutherfordton, as they had completed the work to Ready Patch Gap, and which is the entrance of the Hickory Mt Gap. The corps of engineers would set to work today at Rutherfordton. They have finished the most difficult part of the work through that section. Just as soon as the engineers complete all of the preliminary work squads of hands will be put to work from Tennessee to Southport, and that he confidently believed that in a little more than two years the road will be completed and in operation. When this road is finished it will open up the finest section of the South and bring the beautiful "Land of the Sky" to the doors of our people.

Mr. Gantt writes that the authentic information he has gotten in regard to the certainty of the Transcontinental Railway has more than repaid him for the trip, but he has derived a number of other benefits as well. Before returning home he will visit his old home at Spartanburg, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McRackan and Miss Ada McRackan and Mrs. Laura Powell left yesterday for Hendersonville to visit the family of Mr. D. L. McKeithan. Mr. McRackan will return home in a week but the other members of the party will spend some time at Jackson Springs——Mrs. Lucy Anderson, of Fayetteville, is in Whiteville for a short stay.

Mr. Jesse Anderson, of Timmonsville, and his attractive sister, Miss Susie Anderson, are the guests of Mrs. L. L. Hinson.——Mrs. H. L. Lyon and two children, also Miss Lizzie Toon, have returned from a visit to Waynesville and Asheville.——Mrs. F. A. Bizzell returned today to her home at DeLand, Fla., after a visit to her brother, Hon. J. B. Schulken.——Misses Bonnie Barker, of Lumberton, and Josie Pittman, of Waycross, Ga., are visitors at the home of Mrs. F. A. Howell.——Mr. Rowland Baldwin returned today from a visit to Mrytle Beach. He stated to your correspondent that yesterday he and Mr. Neil Edmunds, of Chadbourn, killed a shark there that measured seven and a half feet. They brought it to Chadbourn——Mr. J. O. LUMBER PLANT BURNED.

Washington, N. C., Has Another Destructive Fire—$35,000 Loss.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Aug. 14.—This city was again visited by a very costly and destructive fire, when the large lumber manufacturing plant of the Eureka Lumber Co., of this city, was totally destroyed. The fire broke out in the boiler room about 3:30 o'clock this morning and before the alarm was given, had gained rapid headway.

The local fire department was on the scene in a few minutes and rendered valuable service, but the fire was too far advanced to be extinguished and the boiler room, engine room and main building were totally destroyed. The large dry kilns and lumber shed were saved after a hard fight. The loss as nearly as can be ascertained at this time is about $35,000, with only $14,700 insurance. It is understood that the company will rebuild the plant at once.

KILLING NEAR SMITHFIELD.

Geo. Stephenson Shoots Tenant in Self-Defense—Released.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 14.—News reached here this morning of the shooting of Ed Jones by George Stephenson in Pleasant Grove township, 15 miles west of Smithfield, late Saturday night. It seems that Jones, who had been drinking, went to Stephenson's house, broke in and chased Stephenson about the place. During his stay he picked up a chair and threw it at Mrs. Stephenson and later made for a gun that was in the house, with the intention of shooting Stephenson, but the latter was too quick for him, for he got possession of the weapon before Jones could get to it and shot him. An inquest was held later and the coroner's jury decided that the shooting was justifiable. Stephenson was released. Jones was a tenant on Stephenson's plantation.

RD OF EDUCATION MEETS

lar Monthly Session Held Yesterday Afternoon—New School House on Middle Sound—Deep Wells Ordered.

e County Board of Education held portant meeting yesterday after- with Chairman J. O. Carr pre- and Messrs. Chas. E. Taylor, nd J. G. L. Gieschen, members e board, and Prof. Washington t, superintendent, in attendance. s the regular monthly meeting n addition to routine business a number of matters incident to the opening of the rural schools for the Fall term the first Monday in September had to be considered.

John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., city school committeeman, appeared before the board and asked that the committeemen be authorized to provide bored wells at the schools in the city where they are desired. Upon motion it was ordered that the committeemen of the respective schools in the city be authorized to provide bored wells wherever deemed necessary, the same to be paid for out of the current fund. Some time ago the board authorized a deep well at the High School building. The order of yesterday includes colored as well as white schools.

Patrons of the school in district No. 13, Middle Sound, petitioned the board to change the location of the school house, on the ground that the present building is three miles from most of the children in the district while only a few live within a mile of the school. It was stated that if the building is moved to a point nearer the coast or sound that some 30 or 40 children will not be more than a mile from the school house, whereas at present there are only eight or ten within a mile of the school. The board decided to erect a new school house provided the site is given in fee simple and that the location is satisfactory to the board and to the patrons. The building is not to cost over $700. The location of the building will be decided at a later meeting. The idea is to sell the old building as soon as the new one is erected.

Mr. Geo. T. Shepard was elected committeeman in district No. 13, vice Mr. J. N. Shepard, resigned, and Mr. W. S. Cooper, in district No. 10, Castle Haynes, vice Mr. W. B. Hand, resigned.

The question of water for the school at Castle Haynes having been brought to the attention of the board, an order was made to the effect, "Whereas, the board authorized in November, 1910, the boring of a deep well at Castle Haynes, which has not been bored, it is ordered that the committeemen be o proceed at once to have red, to cost not exceeding s also ordered that a well district 3, Myrtle Grove, to ceeding $75. This was up ion of the committeemen rict. Mr. J. O. Brown as committeeman in dis- in place of Mr. W. H. resigned. The committee- ict No. 6, were instructed colored school house at h painted. This is the school in the county em- teachers.

Treasurer H. McL. Green and his books for the ty were audited.

Prof. Cadmt reported to the board that the school house for the colored people in district No. 12, on the Castle Haynes road, was destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon, having caught from a forest fire. He was authorized to have a new building erected in its place. The old building was insured and as soon as the insurance money is collected, which will be in the next few days, work of erecting the new building will commence. The board adjourned shortly after 6 o'clock, after having been in session over two hours.

AN ALLIGATOR'S NEST.

Messrs. John Bennett and "Tusk" Savage Made Interesting Find.

Disavowing at the outset any designs upon Col. Wade Harriss' Mendacity Medal, the Star chronicles here the particulars of a most interesting find made yesterday at Carolina Beach by Mr. John N. Bennett and Constable W. B. Savage, of this city. While enjoying an outing in what is known as the "Big Pond," in the Sound, above Mr. H. A. Kure's place, they came upon an alligator's nest from which they took 42 alligator eggs in the process of hatching. Mr. Bennett brought some of the eggs to the city and last night in the Star office in the presence of a number of gentlemen, cracked one of the shells and disengaged from the thin, filmy formation just inside the shell, a young alligator, fully eight inches in length and exhibiting every sign of life. The alligator lays her eggs in the marshes and covers them with a formation of murk, mud and sticks where the sun is allowed to hatch the youngsters out, according to the alligatorists in this neck-o'-the-woods, and the nest unearthed yesterday contained eggs almost ready for hatching. To the uninitiated, the breaking of the shell and the production of the young alligator last night was a most interesting spectacle.

SUNDAY WITH THE RESORTS

Many Spent Day at Wrightsville and Carolina Beaches—Others Visit Fort Caswell to See Soldier Boys.

If the crowds at Wrightsville Beach Sunday may be taken as a criterion the season at that resort seems to be by no means waning, and bids fair to continue well into September, several weeks later than it did last year.

Both the Seashore and the Oceanic Hotels were comfortably crowded with guests and in addition there were between six and seven hundred one-day visitors who came in on the Sunday rates from nearby towns and cities. As usual, the crowd was reinforced by many Wilmington people who went down to spend the day and enjoy the cool breezes. Sunday was extremely warm in the city and the beach was a welcome relief from the heat.

Although the height of the Summer rush has been reached and passed and to judge from former seasons the time is nearing when the hotels will begin to think of closing up, there seems to be very little falling off in the number of visitors, and as fast as one party leaves their place is taken by another. The hotels have reservations extending into the latter part of this month and in some instances the first part of September, and the managements of both popular hostelries state that they will remain open as long as the patronage will justify them in doing so.

Among the recent arrivals at the Oceanic Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, are Mr. Robert L. Spencer, of Pittsburg, and Dr. Robert S. Lamb, Mrs. G. B. Fowler and Miss May Ballard, of Washington, the latter being a sister of Mrs. Fowler. They arrived at the beach about a week ago, having come at the instance of Mr. W. L. Spencer, of Baltimore, who travels for the American Type Founders Company. Mr. W. L. Spencer is a frequent visitor to Wilmington, and having personal knowledge of the delights of Wrightsville Beach he spread its fame with the result that his brother and the others of the party are here enjoying themselves to the full. Mr. Robert L. Spencer is a prominent business man of Pittsburg, and is superintendent of the Duquesne Warehouse Company, of that city. Dr. Lamb is a prominent eye specialist of Washington. They are immensely pleased with the beach, where they find that the breezes, surf bathing, yachting and fishing surpass these attractions at any other seashore resort on the Atlantic coast.

As usual, the Sunday concerts at the two hotels and at Lumina were attractive features of the day and served to add to the pleasure of the hotel guests and visitors to the beach. Splendid programmes were rendered at the Seashore and the Oceanic and the usual afternoon and night concerts at Lumina. The features of the programmes at Lumina were a cornet solo in the afternoon by Mr. Claude Elam and a violin solo at night by Director John Kneisel. Both musicians were freely applauded and each responded to an encore.

Wrightsville Beach by no means got all the pleasure seekers Sunday, for the steamer Wilmington was crowded on its special trip down the Cape Fear and numbers of citizens spent the day at Carolina Beach or went on to Fort Caswell, where the Coast Artillery Corps is now in annual encampment. The visitors to the fort report that the boys are having a very nice time and that maneuvers are proving very beneficial. The members of the Wilmington Light Infantry, which is enrolled in the Coast Artillery Corps, were delighted to see so many home folks Sunday and they spared no pains to make their visit pleasant. The visitors to the fort returned to the city on the steamer late in the afternoon.

What Might Have Been Serious Accident Sunday Afternoon.

South Wilmington street car No. 20, junction-bound, left the tracks just after passing over the switch near Front and Castle streets Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, ploughed its way across the street to the right, coming to a standstill when a trolley pole on the curbing had been knocked to the ground. The butt end of the pole was caught up in the fender. Fortunately, no one was hurt. The car was running at a very low rate of speed in entering the double track at the switch and what caused it to leave the track no one at the scene of the accident was able to explain. Even those looking directly at the front wheels when they first left the track could not state the cause. Some seemed to think the accident was due to the fact that the wheel first to leave the track had practically no flange. However, that may be the fact that no one was hurt is probably due to the presence of mind of Motorman Jones, who stayed by his post until he brought the car to a stop. There were half a dozen or more passengers on the car at the time. They rose in their seats and several went out on the front platform and crowded around the motorman. Mr. Jones realized instantly that his car had left the track and began at once to bring it to a standstill. He worked manfully to stop the car before it struck the pole, but in vain, though it was barely moving at that time. The pole gave way easily and appeared not to be very sound at the place where it broke off. The south-bound South Wilmington car was standing just north of the switch waiting to pass the car in accident, and the place where the pole fell was not a great ways from the car. Traffic was interferred with about an hour on account of the accident.

Judgment Awarded in Default.

Justice G. W. Bornemann yesterday gave judgment by default to Mr. A. E. Blake in three damage suits against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company. The suits were for alleged damages or loss to three shipments of peanuts. One suit was for $73.86, one for $77.82 and another for $66.60. The case was set for 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and as no representative of the railroad company put in appearance at the hearing Justice Bornemann gave judgment in favor of Mr. Blake by default. Mr. Blake was represented by K. C. Sidbury, Esq.

RECORDER'S COURT CROWDED

Congested Docket Yesterday Morning—Two Cases For Violation of Hog Ordinance—Many Cases Are Continued.

Congested to the last degree was the docket in the Recorder's court yesterday morning and not for many moons has the mourners' bench been so thickly populated. The offenses ranged all through the category of misdemeanors and petty crime, some 30 cases being on the books. Many of these were continued until later in the week, as it was impossible to dispose of all of them.

Messrs. Geo. Burnett and B. B. Cameron were charged with violating the ordinance recently passed by City Council relative to keeping hogs in the city limits. These were the first cases to be prosecuted under the new act and considerable interest attached to them. On request of the health department judgment was suspended on the defendants provided they remove their hogs from the city limits by last night. The ordinance provides a fine of $5 for each day that the offense continues and had this fine been enforced Messrs. Burnett and Cameron would have had to pay fines amounting to over $1,000. Mr. Burnett owned about 20 hogs and Mr. Cameron two and at the time the warrants were served the ordinance had been in effect 11 days.

Tom Wright, Jr., and Herbert Leonard, both colored, were charged with larceny. Their case was continued until Friday and they were remanded to jail under $250 bond each. The negroes are suspected of being complicated in the robberies that occurred Saturday night on Castle street, as recounted in Sunday's issue of The Star.

The case charging Chas. Hopkins and Mrs. Sophy Daniels with being common nuisances was continued until tomorrow morning. Hopkins will also face a charge of disorderly conduct.

Leonard Tindal, white, drunk and disorderly, was taxed $5 and costs.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN PASSES

Capt. John W. Plummer Died Sunday Morning Suddenly—Highly Esteemed Citizen—Funeral Services Yesterday.

Hundreds of friends throughout this city and section were shocked and saddened Sunday when they learned of the death of Capt. John W. Plummer, one of Wilmington's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, and for years a well known business man in this city, who passed away rather suddenly Sunday morning at 8:40 o'clock at his home, No. 119 South Sixth street, of heart trouble, death ensuing in less than an hour after the first symptoms of the attack.

He was on his front porch reading the morning newspaper when he received the first warning of the approach of the fatal attack and immediately went in the house. In a little while he felt some better and went to the table to eat breakfast. He became worse, however, and soon had to leave the table. Physicians were summoned, but he expired before they arrived. Capt. Plummer had not been in the best of health for some time, but he was apparently as well as usual when he arose Sunday morning. As soon as he received the attack he realized that death was hovering near, remarking to his wife that he thought he was dying.

The funeral services were held from the late residence at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, in the absence of the rector of St. Paul's Church, of which he was a member, and there were present a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends. The many handsome floral designs bore silent testimony to the high esteem in which Capt. Plummer was held by many friends in the city. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery and the burial was with Masonic honors, Capt. Plummer being a member of Wilmington Lodge, No. 319, A. F. & A. M., for a long number of years. The pallbearers were: Honorary: Col. A. M. Waddell, Messrs. Thos. O. Bunting, William Calder, Thos. E. Wallace; active, Messrs. W. J. Davis, J. B. Mercer, R. F. Hamme, C. H. Holsenback, A. S. Holden and Capt. W. P. Oldham.

Capt. John W. Plummer was born in Lincolnshire, England, and he came to America when he was only 15 years old, going to Milwaukee, Wis. He had lived there but a few years when the war between the States broke out and he volunteered and enlisted in Company G., of the 24th Regiment of Wisconsin, sometimes referred to as the "Bald Eagle Regiment" owing to the fact that the regiment had an eagle as mascot, the bird being in at least one battle perched high upon the flag pole. Capt. Plummer was a brave soldier and fought with valor on the side of the North throughout the four years of the bitter struggle. He was to be found in the fore rank of every skirmish in which he participated and deserved the several promotions which came to him. He was first promoted to first lieutenant of the company at Chattanooga, Tenn., and later was promoted to the captaincy of the same company, in which capacity he served until the close of the war.

As soon as the war was over he went back to Milwaukee, Wis., where he remained only a short time, coming to Wilmington early in 1866 to take a position as mail agent on the old Manchester Railroad, now the W. C. & A. branch of the Coast Line, which was secured for him by the late Congressman Dockery, of Rockingham. He held this position for three years and then took a similar position on the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherfordton, now the Carolina Central division of the Seaboard Air Line. After serving on this run for two years Capt. Plummer in 1871 settled in Robeson county, at a place afterwards known as Plummersville, named in honor of Capt. Plummer. He married at Plummersville Miss Susan B. Gilbert, on February 13th, 1867, Rev. Dr. Luther McKinnon, now of Clinton, performing the ceremony. Mrs. Plummer survives.

Capt. Plummer lived at Plummersville a number of years and was extensively engaged in the turpentine business, farming and merchandise. He was one of the most prominent and substantial citizens of his community. In 1884 he removed to Maxton, where he lived for four years, removing to Wilmington in 1888, and has since made this city his home. He was in the confectionery business here for many years until his health began to fail, and since then the business has been conducted by Mr. John W. Plummer, Jr. Although getting along in years, Capt. Plummer was at the store right much until very recently.

Capt. Plummer was just as good a Confederate soldier as he had served in defense of the Southland throughout the struggle. His heart was with the boys below the Mason and Dixon line. This was amply illustrated by an incident that occurred during the State reunion of the Confederate veterans here two weeks ago. Capt. Plummer not only wore the Confederate badge and talked with enthusiasm of the cause for which so many of the South's brave men gave up their lives, but he took part in the parade on the closing day of the reunion.

Besides being a member of Wilmington Lodge, No. 319, A. F. & A. M., Capt. Plummer was a member of the Knights of Honor. For many years he was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Capt. Plummer was 72 years old and was well known and was most highly esteemed by hundreds of friends throughout the city and section and announcement of his passing was received with genuine regret. He is survived by his wife and four children, three daughters, Mrs. D. W. Townsend, of Fayetteville; Mrs. Mason G. Burr, of Wilmington; Mrs. K. B. Kopf, New York City; one son, Mr. John W. Plummer, of Wilmington. Also three brothers and three sisters, these being Messrs. Harry W. Plummer, of San Francisco, Cal.; Thos. W. Plummer, Gates Center, Kan.; Chas. W. Plummer, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mrs. Geo. Rising, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Sarah Heinkel, Minneapolis, Minn., and Mrs. Seiger, Milwaukee, Wis. Mrs. Townsend arrived Sunday morning from Fayetteville to spend the week-end with her parents and at the beach. She was almost prostrated with grief to learn upon her arrival of the passing of her father only a short time before. Mrs. Kopf, of New York, the other daughter living outside of Wilmington, was not able to come for the funeral. The bereaved have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their sorrow.

FRAUD ON SALVATIONISTS

Trouble Reported from Asheville—Retail Merchants Association

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 14.—The Asheville merchants have been informed by Adjutant Bouters, of the Salvation Army, of the fact that some one in Asheville is collecting money under the guise of representing the Salvation Army. Various merchants have contributed money to this person. Steps were taken to stop the collection.

At a meeting of the directors of the Retail Merchants' Association Thursday night, it was reported that since the merchants have become active in the matter of express rates to Asheville, there has been material reduction in the rates, in some cases as much as 10 to 40 per cent. Steps will now be taken to investigate the long and short haul freight rates. It was decided that the name of the organization shall be changed to the Merchants' Association of Asheville, in view of the fact that several wholesale merchants desire to become members. It was suggested that a graduated scale of membership dues be arranged based somewhat on the volume of business done by the individual member, to make membership desirable to some of the smaller merchants.

FALLS FROM SECOND STORY.

Mrs. G. F. Seitter Seriously Injured on Sunday Morning.

Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, while seated in the window of her husband's apartments on the second floor of the building at the northwest corner of Princess and Second streets, Mrs. G. F. Seitter in some way lost her balance, falling to the pavement 25 feet below and sustaining injuries that are considered very serious.

She was removed to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where everything possible was done to ease her pain, and last night it was stated that she was resting as easily as could be expected considering the nature of her injuries. She had both wrists fractured in the fall and in addition to numerous other bruises and contusions, her spine seems to have been injured. When picked up she was in a semi-conscious condition and she was still in partial stupor last night.

It is thought that Mrs. Seitter arose from her bed and sat down on the window sill to obtain relief from the oppressive heat of the night. Whether she lost her balance or fell asleep and dropped out is not known.

Assistant Chief of Police C. W. Woolard was in the New York Cafe just across from the building when Mrs. Seitter fell. His first intimation of the occurrence was when he heard her scream. Mr. Woolard hurried across the street and reached Mrs. Seitter about the same time that Mr. Oscar Croom came running up from Orrel's stables, nearby. The officer went upstairs and awoke Mr. Seitter, who was sleeping and had not heard his wife scream. He came down and carried her upstairs in his arms. Dr. J. B. Willingham was summoned and he saw that the woman was seriously injured. Accordingly the ambulance was sent for and Mrs. Seitter was taken to the hospital.

While it is known that her injuries are of a very serious nature, Mrs. Seitter's friends are hoping that they are not necessarily fatal and that she will be able to recover from them, and soon be out.

GETTING READY FOR PAVING

Contract for Front Street Work Will Be Signed in Few Days.

It is expected that the contractors will sign and return to Wilmington in a few days the contracts for paving Front street from the union station to Castle street. The contracts were properly signed by the city officials a few days ago and forwarded to Mr. Wm. Pannill, Atlanta, contractor for the asphalt, and the Southern Brick and Construction Co., Chattanooga, for their approval and signatures. Councilman P. Q. Moore stated yesterday that he is ready to begin the improvement of the street right away. It is probable that work will be commenced some time in September. Some are of the opinion that Council ought to decide definitely relative to the sewerage system before the street is improved, and it is not improbable that the Councilmen, who appear not to be in a hurry to act, will be appealed to at the meeting this afternoon to settle the sewerage question, so that the work of paving the street may not be interferred with.

Street improvement work is going right ahead now under the direction of Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Streets and Wharves Department. The work of laying vitrified brick on Red Cross to Fourth and Fourth to the railroad bridge is progressing as rapidly as possible, while the work on Second, between Chesnut and Grace, and on Chesnut, between Second and Third, is nearing completion. Vitrified bricks have been delivered for improvement of Second, between Princess and Chesnut, and Dock, between Second and Third streets. These two blocks will next receive the attention of the street force. When they have been completed other work will have been provided.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN F. RULFS

Passed Away Sunday Evening at Residence of His Son on Grace Street—Funeral Will be Held This Afternoon.

At the residence of his son, Mr. John F. Rulfs, Jr., on Grace, between Fourth and Fifth streets, Mr. John F. Rulfs, one of Wilmington's best known German citizens, died Sunday evening about 7 o'clock, at the advanced age of 80 years. Mr. Rulfs had been in failing health for some time but his death was entirely unexpected, occurring only a short time after his physician had left his bedside.

Mr. Rulfs is survived by two children, Mr. John F. Rulfs, Jr., of the firm of Peterson & Rulfs, and Mrs. B. F. Keith, of this city. Neither of the children were at the bedside of their father when death ensued. Mrs. Keith was at the bedside of a sick daughter at her country home at Keith, N. C., and the son was visiting his children at Salisbury. No apprehensions of Mr. Rulfs' death were felt at the time the children left. Telegrams were sent them at once advising them of the sad news and they both reached the city yesterday.

Coming to this city when a young man 27 years of age, and making it his home ever since then, Mr. Rulfs had hundreds of friends who will be deeply grieved at his death, and who will tenderly sympathize with the sorrowing son and daughter. Mr. Rulfs was born in Hiddigwarden, Amt. Berne, Oldenburg, Germany, September 6th, 1832. He came to America in 1858, several years before the opening of the civil war. For many years he was engaged in the mercantile business here, his store being located at the corner of Fourth and Walnut. He was known as a successful business man and one of sterling character and strict integrity. Ten years ago he retired from business on account of advanced age and since that time he has lived quietly in the city.

The deceased was one of the founders of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church and has been a consistent member ever since. He took great interest in all phases of the church work and was a liberal contributor to many worthy charity causes. Mr. Rulfs also helped to organize the former Howard Relief Volunteer Fire Engine Company and was an enthusiastic member of that organization during its existence. He was one of the foremost members of Germania Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of the son on Grace street, thence to St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Interment will be made in Oakdale cemetery.

Many friends throughout this city and elsewhere will be glad to learn that Dr. Morris M. Caldwell, who underwent an emergency operation Sunday evening, was reported last night as resting very comfortably and getting along as well as could be expected. The operation was performed at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, by Dr. Thos. M. Green. Dr. Caldwell became suddenly ill Sunday, and the only hope for his recovery lay in the operation. His brother, Dr. D. S. Caldwell, of Charlotte, has arrived, to be with him; also Dr. R. L. Gibson, of Charlotte, and Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Caldwell, of Concord. Dr. Caldwell is one of Wilmington's ablest and most popular physicians and hundreds of friends in this city and elsewhere throughout the State earnestly hope for his speedy recovery.

The Bijou always makes good its promises. So yesterday even though expectations had been whetted-up to a keen edge, the popular and attractive Bijou was equal to the demand. The Bijou promised that yesterday's bill would be a whopper both in size and worth, and that the promise was fulfilled was plainly attested by the delightful expressions on the faces of those who attended and their high words of praise for the big show. Yesterday's bill was truly a corker. Yet today's programme is going to be even better. Four of the greatest films, placed on the market Saturday, being shipped direct from factory to Wilmington, will be offered, and the list will be big for comedy. People like to laugh and the smile-picture today at the Bijou will therefore be immensely to their liking. "That Dare Devil" is a highly mirthful one, dealing with a new "copper," who is a peach, while "An Interrupted Game" shows how hubby buncoes poor wife. He leaves to see a sick friend, but really goes to a card game. Wife follows and what ensues will tickle the ribs like the application of a feather duster.

Among the dramatic photo-plays for today are "The Ruling Passion" and "The Switchman's Tower." The latter is a thriller and the scene showing how a wreck is narrowly averted is an exciting spectacle.

MOUNTAIN TO SEA RATES.

Go Into Effect Tomorrow Over the A. C. L.—Special Party.

Two features that will doubtless aid very materially in prolonging the season at Wrightsville Beach this year are the annual "mountain to seashore" special rates that are inaugurated over the Atlantic Coast Line for a period of about 15 days at this time each year and a large party that is expected to arrive over the A. C. L. from Montgomery, Ala., Saturday, August 19th.

The special "mountain to seashore" rates will become effective tomorrow and continue in operation until September 2nd. It is expected that this low rate will bring to the popular resort several hundred people.

The special party from Montgomery next Saturday is also expected to swell the number of guests at the hotels on the beach. While this is not an excursion, as the travelers will make the trip on the regular trains, a large number of reservations have already been made and a good crowd is looked for.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan yesterday received from Judge H. W. Whedbee, a writ of habeas corpus commanding the officer to bring before him at Raeford, Hoke county, today, Mr. W. L. Dukes, of this city, who was last week adjudged insane by Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court, upon complaint of Mrs. Dukes. The purpose of the hearing is to gain the freedom of Mr. Dukes, if possible. He is represented by Kellum & Loughlin, of this city.

SMALL GAIN MADE IN COTTON

Market Closed Steady Four to Seven Points Higher—Big Long Interests Take Advantage of Unfavorable Crop News.

New York, Aug. 14.—An early advance in the cotton market due to reports of crop deterioration and covering of shorts was followed by a reaction to nearly the closing figures of Saturday and the market closed steady at a net gain of 4@7 points.

Big long interests were supposed to be selling during the day presumably taking advantage of less favorable crop news to reduce their lines and in the late trading some large blocks changed hands with a more or less general opinion that the result of the day had been a very considerable reduction in the outstanding interests. The market opened steady at an advance of 8@11 points in response to better cables than expected and reports of continued dry hot weather in the southwest over Sunday. Private cables from Liverpool reported that the labor troubles were spreading, but this news seemed to be offset by the firm showing of the English market and while there were reactions of from 6 to 7 points from the best during the morning, prices here continued to advance until around midday, when active months were from 15 to 17 points net higher, with October selling at 11.32, or 32 points up from the low level of Saturday morning. This advance seemed to discount a bullish private condition report and the market later ruled easier, under heavy selling, attributed to leading bull interests, with October breaking to 11.15 and other months to within 2 or 3 points of Saturday's closing figures. Last prices were 3 or 4 points from the lowest on renewed covering and it looked as if there was a more or less general disposition to even up accounts, even among the larger traders, pending more definite crop news of further accounts from the English labor troubles. A private condition report issued during the middle of the day indicated an average deterioration of 9.3 per cent. in new crop prospects since the 25th of July, including a loss of about 17 per cent. in Texas prospect. Private reports received from the South during the day were convincing as to the situation and the official forecast was for continued fair weather in Texas and Oklahoma.

Heavy rains in the central belt attracted little attention and crop complaints from the east of the river were generally based on insect damage. Receipts today, 4,645 against 3,265 last week and 7,346 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 253 bales, against 1,120 last year, and at Houston, 12,837 bales against 7,375 last year.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, August 14.—A moderate increase in the demand for dress goods, men's wear and silks, was reported in different quarters during today. The cotton goods and yarns are still quiet and are influenced largely by conditions in the cotton market. Jobbers report a more active demand.

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c. at R R. Bellamy.

STOCK MARKET IS IMPROVING

Gave a Better Account of Itself Than For Any Day During the Past Week Yesterday—Buying on A Large Scale.

New York, Aug. 14.—Taking the session as a whole, today's stock market gave a better account of itself than any day of the past week. London was again its guide, sending over a list of gains which ran from one to over two points in United States Steel, Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific, and later continuing its operations in this market.

The buying from that quarter it is believed had its inception on this side of the water, at all events it had the effect of instilling a degree of confidence and buying both of which essentials had been sadly lacking for almost a fortnight. Likewise, it is believed to have caused extensive short covering, although in this particular opinions differ radically.

Discussion of fundamentals today ranged from the purely academical to the possibility of reduced dividend in the course of the next few months by some of the prominent roads, as well as industrial companies. Respecting the former, it was noted that St. Paul's earnings the past two years have been such as to leave room for doubt that the company will be able to maintain the 7 per cent on the common. It is well known that other roads of less importance as disbursing larger dividends than are deemed compatible with safety or conservatism, and indubitably this applies to industrials as well.

United States Steel led the list in point of activity today, sales aggregating 200,000 shares out of a grand total of 782,000. The buying of this stock was at times on a very large scale and gave color to the theory that the demands came from inside sources.

The fact that the Stanley Congressional Committee had adjourned for two months was accounted an encouraging feature, and other advice bearing upon the steel and iron industry was even more favorable.

The market was at its best in the last hour, when Union Pacific advanced to 174¾, with a gain of four points, with a simultaneous move elsewhere in the active group. The closing was strong, and had all the marks of a belated rally, a logical outcome of events of the past fortnight. On the curb a sale of two hundred shares of Standard Oil at 600, its recent low price, was the only feature.

The bond market was steady, with a sharp advance in some issues shortly before the close. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,886,000. United States Government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day, 782,400 shares.

DR. WILEY'S CASE.

House Committee Expects to Finish Before Adjournment of Congress.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The House committee investigating affairs in the Agricultural Department and the facts surrounding the threatened reprimand or removal of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, expects to finish its investigation before the adjournment of Congress and if possible make a report to the House at this session. Dr. Wiley was ready to testify today, but Chairman Moss put on other witnesses. It is expected Dr. Wiley will testify tomorrow.

Dr. Baldwin, assistant chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, who was also slated for removal in the case involving the agreement with Dr. H. H. Rusby, of New York, completed his testimony today and sought to show that the agreement with Dr. Rusby was modeled upon that previously made between Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and members of the Remsen Pure Food Referee Board, employed on a similar basis of pay.

Dr. Baldwin declared that portion of his correspondence would show this to be a fact which had been omitted by the personnel board of the Agricultural Department when that body made up the charges upon which he was recommended for removal.

Miss Carrie M. Davis, stenographer to Dr. Kebler, chief of the drug division of the Bureau of Chemistry, testified today to the several examinations to which she had been subjected by Solicitor McCabe and a special agent in the effort to discover whether Dr. Kebler had relations with drug manufacturing companies.

She said that she was questioned in a private room of the Department in the presence of Mr. McCabe, W. P. Walsh, a special agent, and a stenographer. In compliance with Mr. McCabe's instructions the door was locked, she said and she was kept before the inquisitors for two hours.

Previous to this interview Miss Davis said she had been escorted by Walsh from Mr. McCabe's office to that of Secretary Wilson.

"I have brought Miss Davis in here for you to assure her that no matter what the result of this inquiry, her position will not be jeopardized," Walsh said, according to Miss Davis.

"Not in the least Miss Davis," was Secretary Wilson's reply, "The truth is what we want. You can rest assured you will not be molested."

She said Walsh then took her into a private room and questioned her closely about the private correspondence of Dr. Kebler, chief of the drug division of the Bureau of Chemistry, to ascertain what checks he received. Later Mr. McCabe and the stenographer came in.

Dr. W. D. Bigelow testified that the personnel committee in charging that an arrangement had been entered into with Dr. Rusby whereby the latter was to work part of the time but draw an annual salary supposed the correspondence showing that Dr. Bigelow was proceeding upon the precedent set by Secretary Wilson in appointing members of the referee.

Dr. Bigelow characterized as unjust certain criticisms made by Solicitor McCabe.

His criticisms have been so severe and so unjust when he thought we have been giving out information that no one in the Bureau of Chemistry is willing now to say anything to United States attorneys who are prosecuting pure food cases," said Dr. Bigelow. "The restriction greatly hampers work at the district laboratories, where United States attorneys often want to talk over a case with the chief of the local laboratory."

DISTRUSTS ENGLAND

Hamilton Lewis Dos Not Like Arbitration Treaty.

London, Aug. 13.—Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, of Chicago, former congressman from Washington, has just got back to London from Madrid, where he has been projecting a street railway. He has returned in high spirits.

Colonel "Jim Ham's" raiment is more radiant even than when he combated "Bath House" John Coughlin for sartorial supremacy in Chicago. But for all this splendor of his attire, Colonel Lewis was full of politics.

The colonel said he may decide to run for the United States senatorship of Illinois as soon as a vacancy occurred.

Concerning the arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain he said:

"I distrust both the spirit and the intention of this argument. It varies only slightly in language from a similar understanding we have had seven times before and I can not forget that while three of them existed England exerted both sentiment and assistance against America. When we had Civil War England was willing to aid in attempts to disrupt the government; so she was when we were at war with Spain."

GIRL SWIMS 21 MILES.

Rose Pitonof Accomplishes What Other Swimmers Failed to Do.

New York, Aug. 14.—Rose Pitonof, the 16-year-old swimmer of Boston, succeeded tonight in her attempt to swim from East 26th street, Manhattan, to Coney Island. Last year she had to abandon a similar effort because of adverse tides, but today, although forced at times to swim so far out of her course that she is estimated to have covered some 21 miles in making the distance of 18 miles, she finished strong, actually sprinting as she neared the goal.

Miss Pitonof was in the water eight hours and seven minutes. She took no stimulants or food of any kind on the long trip. Most of the way she used the breast stroke, but for two stretches she resorted to the speedier overhand.

The young woman's feat of today had not before been accomplished. Several swimmers have made the trip from the Battery to Coney Island, but none from a point so far up the East river.

TREATY WITH GERMANY

Reply of Empire Presented to State Department Yesterday—Congress

Washington, Aug. 14.—The reply of Germany to the proposition for a general arbitration treaty with the United States was presented to the State Department today by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador. It is understood to be distinctly favorable to the principles laid down by Sec. of State Knox and to presage the negotiation of a treaty with Germany similar to the pending conventions with Great Britain and France, provided the United States Senate does not drastically amend these terms.

Count Bernstoff, German ambassador, returned to Washington today from Manchester, Mass., the Summer home of the German embassy, for the purpose of conveying his government's answer. He will confer with Secretary Knox tomorrow.

The Senate's threat to modify the treaties with Great Britain and France found an echo in the House today when Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri, made a plea for international peace, denouncing the upper body's opposition to the conventions. He said the "big stick philosopher of Oyster Bay" wanted to leave the doors open for war.

President Taft has about decided not to press the Senate to ratify the arbitration treaties at the special session of Congress. After his return from Beverly today the President was informed that many Senators had taken umbrage at his speech at Mountain Lake Park last week, asking for the moral support of the people to force the Senate to act on the treaties. Rather than antagonize more Senators and render the chance of ratification less certain the President is understood to have reached the conclusion not to make a fight for them at present.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS

Will Probably Fight Shy of the Prohibition Question.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 12.—County conventions were held throughout Kentucky today for the election of delegates to the Democratic state convention, which is to meet here next Tuesday. The work of the convention will be confined to the adoption of a platform, as the candidates for governor and other State officers were chosen in the primary last month.

Great care will be exercised in building the platform, for the Democrats appreciate the fact that they must fight hard to win a victory in the coming election. Despite the success with which the Democrats have been meeting in other sections the party leaders here are aware that Kentucky, which has been admittedly a doubtful State since it went Republican for the first time in 1895, is now more doubtful than ever. This is due partly to the advantage of the Republicans in control of the State administration and partly to the fact that the State's increase in population, as shown by the recent census, has been almost wholly in the eastern districts, which are overwhelmingly Republican.

The platform will give an enthusiastic endorsement to the policy pursued by the Democratic party in Congress. As regards State issues, the most interest centers in the resolutions concerning the liquor question. Unless the Republicans force the issue, which so far they have evinced no intention of doing, the Democrats probably will refrain from making the question the chief issue of the fight. If the convention feels obliged to take an emphatic stand in the matter, however, it will probably declare itself against State-wide prohibition and unequivocally in favor of a uniform local option law, with the county as the unit.

SEARCHING FOR DEAD

Missing Men, Fireman and Engineer, Hidden Under Wreck.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 14.—A revised list of the dead and injured as a result of the eastbound 18-hour Pennsylvania flyer from Chicago to New York leaping the track one mile west of here last evening, shows that two are dead, two missing, and 33 injured. It is practically certain that the two missing men, a fireman and an engineer, are dead. Wrecking crews today are searching the debris for their bodies. None of the injured will die, phsicians sa.

While the cause of the wreck has not been positively ascertained, the best explanation seems to be that the second engine of the flyer, which was a double-header sp... a switch and threw the engine ahead of it from the track. Then as a flying wedge the two left the track and crashing into a westbound freight engine on a track to the north of them. All of the seven Pullman cars which the passenger carried were derailed. With one exception they were steel cars. The dead:

William E. Arrick, Fort Wayne, freight engineer.

Valentine Snyder, Crestline, Ohio, baggage man, died at St. Joseph's hospital this morning from internal injuries.

The missing: Ira R. Unger, Fort Wayne, engineer of the second passenger engine; J. F. Wilson, Fort Wayne, fireman of the first passenger engine.

BLIGHT OF CATERPILLAR

Fifteen Acres of Cotton Destroyed Near Raleigh, N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 14.—News reached Raleigh today of the destruction of 150 acres of cotton, 15 miles north of here by caterpillars. These insects, when they appear, usually do their work in September and on rich land, but this year they came on the land mentioned in August and during a dry season. It is not yet known whether the blight of the caterpillar is general.

She is the second woman in the United States to receive a license under the stringent revised international rules. Miss Harriet Quimby having the first.

RACE WAR THREATENS.

Murder of White Woman by Negro Stirs Oklahomans.

Durant, Okla., Aug. 14.—A second murder of a white woman in this district in three days by a negro has inflamed the whites to such an extent that the outbreak of a long threatened race war is feared. Late today a Mrs. Corder, wife of a farmer living ten miles south of here, was killed after being brutally beaten by a negro. The black ran as the woman's husband, who had been to a nearby field, approached the house. He escaped and an angry posse is pursuing him.

After finding the dead body of his wife Corder walked five miles to Halsell, a village where he told neighbors his story. The community is sparsely settled and excitement runs high in the villages and towns.

For more than a year there has been open enmity evident between the whites and blacks.

Many minor clashes between the whites and negroes, a posse of citizens chasing a negro at Diamond, Okla., who is alleged to have insulted a white man, several hundred white men awaiting the arrival of a train captured by the negroes at Atoka, Okla., and another attack upon a white woman named Porter by a negro, eight miles south of here, comprise the things which have in the last two days sent this section of Oklahoma into a race quarrel.

At Caddo, Okla., trouble started as soon as it was learned that the negro who attacked Mrs. L. R. Campbell here Saturday had been killed and his body burned. Mrs. Campbell, who died from her injuries at Sherman, Texas, today, identified the body of the negro before she was taken to Texas. The negro is said to have lived in Caddo and there that the race is said to comprise the majority of the population. As soon as friends heard of the death of Mrs. Campbell's assailant, there was talk of organizing and seeking revenge. To forestall this, the white men of Caddo formed a posse and posted signs, warning all colored persons in town to leave that place before Saturday night. The negroes started leaving at once, but there was talk that they expected aid of negroes of other towns.

Since then all negroes have left this place, but it is also said that blacks from other towns are preparing to open a fight upon the white people of this section.

Nothing can be learned as to the nature of the attack on Mrs. Porter. Word was brought here that a negro had attacked a white woman there and that a large number of white men, fully armed, are on his trail.

Porter is north of Caddo and it is practically impossible to get the details of the last crime.

Atoka, Okla., was the scene of even greater excitement for there nearly all the inhabitants are negroes. When those heard of the burning of the body of the black man who assailed Mrs. Campbell, the warning and clashes at Caddo, and that a posse was after another negro at Diamond, they were immediately organized and when a Missouri, Kansas & Texas freight train came through the town, they covered the trainmen with guns and took charge. The conductor managed to elude his captors long enough to send a warning to Durant and Caddo. He warned the towns that the negroes were heavily armed and bent upon avenging the death of Mrs. Campbell's assailant.

Immediately upon the receipt of the message here, as in Caddo, nearly every man was pressed into service and is armed, waiting the arrival of the avengers who should arrive here within a short time.

Atoka is the county seat of Atoka county and about 30 miles northeast of here. Caddo is between here and the train which is carrying the negroes, and it is there they will be met by the first armed posse.

Story Denied.

Durant, Okla., Aug. 14.—The circulation of reports that a white woman had been assaulted and killed by a negro near Halsell this afternoon and that 50 armed negroes had captured a southbound Missouri, Kansas & Texas freight train, headed for Durant, following closely the death of Mrs. Reddell Campbell, as the slayer and the burning of his body, threw this district of the country into a fever of excitement tonight. Investigation proved the rumors untrue.

Telegrams were received here tonight, supposed bearing the signature of the conductor of the freight train which it was said had been captured by armed blacks and hundreds of armed men met the train at Caddo, only to learn that there were no negroes aboard the train. Five hundred men armed themselves in Durant and prepared to meet the train when it arrived here. Before its arrival, they learned, however, that the information in the telegrams was false, and while there was great excitement no trouble followed the wild rumors.

In the meantime, headed by Sheriff Hamilton, a posse of 50 men had gone in automobiles to investigate the report of the assault. They returned shortly before the arrival of the train, their investigation proving the story without foundation.

SHOT BY MOONSHINERS

Revenue Agent Dying in Mountains—Surgeons Are Busy

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 14.—Two doctors are in the Brushy Mountains tonight trying to save the life of Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Robert Henry, who was shot this afternoon when raiding in a moonshine plant, while a heavily armed, determined posse, is scouring the mountains for his assailant, a man named Lane. The revenue officer was hit just above the left eye and his condition is considered critical.

INSURANCE METHODS REPORT.

Report of Commissioners of Five States on Irregularities.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 14.—Insurance commissioners representing the State of Michigan, Illinois, Massachusetts, New York and Virginia, met here today to report on the condition of insurance companies which do an industrial and accidental business.

Various companies which are engaged in this class of work have come under the scrutiny of the commissioners and searching criticism of some of the methods employed in settlement of claims on accident policies was made in the reports submitted. The investigation of the industrial and accidental insurance now covers some 15 companies and reports are being prepared on each company. The committee of State representatives has not yet completed its final report, but alleged serious evils in the settlements of various policies are said to have been discovered. These, in the opinion of the commissioners, are the more aggravated, because the sufferers are usually working men who, it is stated, through ignorance of their rights and hampered by policy contracts of wordy clauses have apparently, in a number of cases, been at the mercy of calloused claim adjusters.

The investigation is intended not only to bring out and inform the public as to the facts and compel restitution where wrong has been done, but by finding the causes of present conditions to suggest proper remedies.

CABINET MEETING.

Special Conference of the President's Official Family.

Wahsington, Aug. 14.—A special meeting of the cabinet was called for 8 o'clock today, soon after the President's return from Beverly. It was understood that the President's veto message on the Statehood bill and the rough drafts of the veto messages on the wool bill and the farmers' free list bill would be considered.

"Make Your Own Luck"

Many people expect to become suddenly wealthy by some change of "luck."

Luck is a "rainbow", under which we stand in a vain effort to grasp both ends, hoping thereby to gain a pot of gold in each hand.

Such a vain endeavor is a picture of foolishness, but the man who spends all his income and then grasps at which to open a bank account.

The rainbow is a reflection of something DOING, and a bi or wealth, is the reflection of something DONE.
